

BREAK GROUND FOR YOUTH EDUCATION BUILDING

Five Arlington youths badly injured in auto accident

Stop signs fail to prevent three accidents

Four bad accidents with injuries to a number of persons occurred in the Arlington Heights area between Friday morning and Monday.

In three of the cases stop signs did not prevent the accidents and in two of these drivers claimed that they obeyed the signs, and did not see approaching cars.

Although one death resulted in the first such accident, the most serious collision sent eight to hospitals. Two of the eight were so seriously injured that it was feared for a time that injuries might be fatal.

A NEAR tragedy occurred Saturday night for six Arlington Heights young people, all students of Arlington Heights high school. A car driven by James Schwartz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schwartz, 515 S. Belmont, collided with a car from Berwyn at the Palatine and Wolf road intersection.

James, who is in St. Joseph's hospital, Elgin, was still unconscious Wednesday afternoon but doctors say that he will recover. He sustained a skull fracture and other critical injuries.

Other Arlington Heights persons injured and the extent of their injuries are:

Sandra George, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. George, 506 East Northwest Highway, returned from St. Joseph's hospital Wednesday. She has a broken collar bone.

Harry Griffith, 16, son of C. L. Griffith, 618 W. Campbell, two broken bones in right forearm; is at home.

Diane Boehme, 14, Route 1, Arlington Heights was taken home after receiving first aid. She has a dislocated sacroiliac.

Ardes Bohlin, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bohlin, is at home with a fractured pelvis.

Wm. Morrison, son of John H. Morrison, 803 Harvard ave., was the only one to escape injury. He was sitting in the rear seat of the car on the opposite side of the impact.

THE SIX were enroute to a movie. None of them can tell what actually happened, or know how long they lay along the highway before a passing car stopped and police and ambulances were called. All injured were first taken to Northwest hospital, Des Plaines.

The occupants of the other car, all at MacNeal Memorial hospital, Berwyn, and their injuries are: Joseph J. Keckek, 51, of 2442 Grove Ave., Berwyn, serious back injuries, head cuts, bruises; his wife, Blanche, 47, broken right shoulder and right wrist, other injuries; his daughter, Joan, 16, injured right eye, cuts, and bruises, and Arlene Kmen, 17, of 3648 S. Grove ave., Berwyn, fractured collar bone and other injuries.

They are reported on the way to recovery.

Kakeek told the highway police he was traveling south on Wolf road and approaching Palatine road, slowed down but did not see the other vehicle, which evidently did not stop for the stop sign.

SPEEDING on a through highway cost the life of Wm. B. Crowe, 2737 N. Cicero avenue, Chicago at 7:45 a.m. July 8 at the intersection of route 53 and 62. He hit the left center of a gasoline trailer being driven by Laurie L. Higgenbotham, 9541 S. Moody, Oak Lawn, who was driving for Sprout & Davis Co., Whiting, Ind.

The truck driver told county police he was going north on route 53 and came to a full stop at 62. He saw no one approaching from either east or west.

As the big truck got to the center of the intersection driver saw a car coming at high speed from the west. He stepped on the gas but could not gain sufficient momentum to get out of the way of the other vehicle.

LOSS OF CONTROL of a car sent Walter B. Redmond, 54, Oak Park to the Oak Park hospital Sunday evening. He drove off the road at the intersection of Plum Grove road and route 62. He could give no statement to the police.

IT CAN AND DID HAPPEN HERE

The above cars were involved in accidents last week end (other cars not shown). Top picture: Driver killed as his car hit gasoline truck. Second: Five out of six youths riding in this car were sent to hospitals. Third: Driver lost control of this car; he is in Oak Park hospital. Bottom picture: Also wrecked at stop sign intersection; two in hospital.

Three of pictures were taken at Arlington Fender and Body Shop.

An accident at Schoenbeck and McDonald roads at 7 a. m. Monday, July 11, sent Wauconda and Prospect Heights men to the hospital.

Robert E. Douglas, 35, Wauconda was driving east on McDonald road. He applied his brakes and skidded 20 feet when he suddenly saw a '48 Ford traveling south on Schoenbeck rd. in front of him.

THE SECOND car was being driven by Clarence Petersen, 51, a toolmaker, who stated he had stopped his car in obedience to the stop sign, then started to cross.

A MOTHER PHEASANT and her young ones caused a property damage accident at Owen and Northwest highway in Mt. Prospect last Wednesday. Mrs. Alva Meyer, Arlington Heights stopped her car to permit the pheasants to cross the road.

A trailer truck following the Meyer car was unable to stop

St. Peter church to have 700-seat auditorium in $230,000 structure

St. Peter Lutheran Church, Arlington Heights, will conduct a ground breaking service for its new Youth-Education building next Sunday, July 17, at 3 p. m.

The service will be conducted on the site of the new building south of the present parish school. Ample shade will be found under the elm trees along Eastman street in the event of sunny weather.

Freight, passenger stations to close on Saturday

Chicago & Northwestern railroad is bowing to the demand of employees and will close both freight and passenger stations on Saturdays and Sundays, beginning Sept. 1.

The company has forwarded official notice of its intention to all municipalities. The Des Plaines passenger station, which has been open until 9 p. m. daily will hereafter be closed on Sunday and may also be closed on Saturday afternoons.

The regular agents at Barrington will be relieved of duty on Saturdays and Sundays, but extra men may be on duty those days to handle transfers between the two railroads.

Arlington Heights, Mt. Prospect and Palatine offices will only be open five days a week.

Parade concludes VFW annual festival

A gigantic parade will conclude the VFW festival Sunday, August 7 at 2 p. m. More than 50 units and visiting fire departments including 20 Drum and Bugle corps from various cities and states will march to the recreation park to climax this festival beginning August 3.

Many local business men are preparing colorful floats.

The United States Navy by courtesy of Captain Donald L. Mills, N. A. S., commanding officer, Glenview, Ill., will send a Corsair squadron. This courtesy has been extended by the Navy to the post three years. This will be one of the finest air power shows held in any city.

St. Mary's Training school band consisting of 100 pieces will lead the parade.

An aerial salute will start the parade at 2 p. m. Carl R. Skoog, Chief of Police, will fire 1 salvo at 1 p. m. to indicate "fall in." Two salvos at 2 p. m. will indicate the beginning of the parade.

All groups are requested to notify S. Greshner, parade marshal of their participation. The Post welcomes all to join in this portion of the program.

A mass exhibition of Drum corps will be held at the conclusion of the parade at the recreation park.

Famous stars of stage and radio will entertain nightly with local talent added.

8-year-old girl drowns

Doris Ann Geske, 8 years old, this season's first victim of drowning, lost her life at the Bay View beach near Burton's bridge on the Fox river. She was the daughter of William and Lillian Rose Geske of route 1, Crystal Lake.

The little girl was swimming with her brother, David, 6, while her mother and a friend, Isa Seitz, watched them from the beach. The children, neither of whom could swim, were standing in water up to their waists when they apparently stepped off into a deep hole.

Both of the women on the beach ran to the children's aid, but the little boy was terribly excited and, while the mother had the little girl by the arm, she let go of her to assist the boy. She then turned the boy over to Mrs. Seitz and turned to give aid to her daughter, but the current of the river had taken her out to mid-stream. Bill Jones, across the river, heard the screams for help and brought her little body to shore.

Daniel Rosen, Chicago, was also treated for severe bruises to the back and arms and released.

New car owner

Mrs. Wayvo Roberts of Palatine, is the new owner of the '49 Buick shown at Palatine's Legion-Lions carnival last weekend. The carnival drew a record crowd for the Northwest area (publicators reported a "counted" 60,000 in attendance). Various quiz, dance, beauty, amateur and other contests found the local merchants giving away over $1500 in merchandise awards.

Ask bids for resurfacing of NW Highway between Palatine, Arlington

The state highway division has asked for bids to be opened Friday morning, July 15, on 3.28 miles of bituminous resurfacing on Route 19 from Colfax place in Palatine southeast to Euclid avenue in Arlington Heights, and on Route 42 near Chicago Milwaukee, St. Paul and Pacific railroad at Glenview.

THE COMMUNITY is most cordially invited to join the congregation in this day of rejoicing, for the edifice will render service to both community and congregation, the Rev. L. V. Stephan has announced.

After the sermon the pastor will turn the first spadeful of earth imploring the blessing of Almighty God upon the structure. He will be followed in turn by members of the building committee, Messrs. John Pfingsten, chairman, Martin Freeman and Geo. F. Meyer, also the congregational trustees, Messrs. Ernst Malzahn, chairman, Herman Behn and William Brockman.

A public address system will carry the address for the day as well as the organ accompaniment for the congregational singing. Mr. E. W. Klummer, church organist, will play organ selections and the chimes as the audience gathers for the divine service.

Printed programs showing various pictures of the drawings will be furnished.

Following the worship hour and ceremony of ground breaking, the Waltham League society, headed by Miss Arlene Malzahn, will sponsor an ice cream social for the benefit of the building fund.

THE CONTRACT for the new building has been let to Axel Johnson of Chicago for $205,000. Equipment and furniture will cost an additional $25,000 it is estimated. The edifice, built of brick and stone in the modern style of architecture, will stand on the corner of North Highland and West Eastman street and will adjoin the present school building.

The gymnasium-auditorium, measuring 60 by 110 feet, will include a large stage as well as folding bleachers for 250 persons. The seating capacity of the auditorium will be 700. A large modern cafeteria and kitchen will be constructed below the gymnasium capable of seating about 350 persons at tables. A well appointed room for the three women's societies will also adjoin the dining hall with separate entrance and kitchenette.

Other rooms called for on the specifications are a library for young and old, a school office, school health room, finance room and youth room, the latter two on the second floor of the wing which will adjoin the present school.

Lutheran Home festival attended by 4,000

Unseasonable hot and humid weather for ten days broke Sunday in time for the annual festival of the Lutheran Home and Service for the Aged at Arlington Heights.

"It was a perfect day and the sunshine was a good omen for our building program," stated the Rev. Kempf, superintendent of the home.

Attendance is estimated at 4,000. The receipts exceeded those of a year ago. Nearly all sections of metropolitan Chicago were represented.

The highlight of the day was the address of Dr. Henry F. Wind, president of the Associated Lutheran Churches of North America and executive secretary of the Lutheran Service Workers of New York.

Dr. Wind stressed the $850,000 campaign for funds for the building of the Lutheran home which is contemplated in the near future. The present structure will be abandoned and sold, and the new home will be erected on the south end of the 80 acres owned by the Lutherans in the northeastern part of the village.

The main section of the present home was built in 1892 and has become entirely inadequate.

The speaker told his audience that 57 years ago when the home was originally built, it was as large a project for the Lutherans of this area as is the new project for the Lutheran synod of 1949. He said that the Lutherans of today should emulate their forefathers who originally made sacrifices to finance the building program of 1892.

The fancy goods made by a group of Lutheran ladies, who have been sewing for a year, were very much in demand.

Generous response to appeals for aid for Lynch family

The public is responding generously to the appeals for help for the Leo Lynch family whose home in Palatine was destroyed by fire last Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Lynch are still in very serious condition.

Four separate collections have been inaugurated which prove the generosity and innate kindness of the people.

On August 7 the Immanuel Lutheran church of Palatine will take up a collection for the Lynch family who are members of this church.

Mrs. Harold J. Brinkman and Mrs. John B. Nichol, both of Rohlwing road, Palatine, took up a collection from the immediate neighbors. Everyone has been very generous giving both money and clothes. Many have furniture and household goods they are saving for the family.

BOTTLES have been placed in all the stores in Palatine, and there are also some at the racetrack. Charles T. Folkerts, 57 West Chicago ave., Palatine, began this collection by having cards printed and placing the bottles in the stores. These bottles were in evidence at the recent Legion-Lions carnival where the response was again generous. Clarence Brinkman, of Palatine, is taking up a collection among the employees at the racetrack.

The insurance will rehabilitate the house, but doesn't provide for furniture, clothing or hospital bills.

Replace gas mains in business district

The rat-a-tat-tat and hissing of an air compressed drill and the pungent odor of gas along Campbell ave., in Arlington Heights will continue for another week or more.

Public Service is replacing the two inch gas mains along Campbell, between Vail and Evergreen streets. One block is nearing completion, and it is expected that the same length of time will be needed to finish the second block.

Reports of gas leaks along the block necessitated the work.

Palatine tavern owners agree to increase of license fees

Palatine tavern owners have boosted their own license fees. The increase is 25%. When they met with village officials last week they were unanimously in favor of the fifty per cent boost that had been suggested.

The new fees are: Class A $625; Package stores $375; Clubs $125. The owners gave their pledge to Mayor Voss that they would run their places of business in a proper manner and would cooperate with the authorities.

The new Palatine fees are about the same as those in Arlington Heights.

127 pass swim tests at Arlington pool this season

The names of those who have passed swimming tests at Arlington Heights pool have been published weekly. At this time 127 youngsters have passed the Red Cross swimming tests given at the pool.

One person has passed the advanced test; 19, the swimmers test; 7, the intermediate level; and 100, the beginners test.

Girls who passed the beginners test this week are: Barbara Baumann, Barbara Cloud, Josephine Duro, Gloria Stephan, Marlene Smeed, Marlene Engelking, Marlene Martin, Beverly Jackson, Barbara Smith, Myra Lee Clausen, Peggy Duenn, Cecilia Close, Sally Moore, Barbara Lohse, Carol Edelblute, Lauralee Huebner and Gloria Beckway.

Tommy Jacobsen, Paul Otto, Roger Simon, John Amtmann, Richard Lackband, Carl Klehm, Frederick Delafield, Robert Moeschling, Jerry Fox, John Gregg, Billy Grove, George Skoog, Glenn Moehling, Jon Weisenbach, George Orth, Lance Lindstrom, Ralph Wille, Ronny Klagges and Charles Jarmuth have also passed the beginners group.

The following boys have passed the intermediate group: Bill Malcolm, Robben Mueller, Dick Winterbauer, Herbert Goudie, John Lee and Robert Moritz.

Those who have passed the swimmers test are Carol Holmes, Julia Hinds, Suzanne Franke and Dennis Mayer.

A water show will highlight the swim season at the pool August 2. This show will include approximately 8 numbers by the water ballet group, a class demonstration in teaching beginning swimming and water polo games.

Sponsor circus in Arlington Heights for library fund

The Arlington Heights Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a circus today, Thursday, at 2:30 in the afternoon and at 8 p. m. The entire net proceeds of the Chamber of Commerce will go into its activity fund, chief beneficiary of which is the proposed library building which now has nearly $12,000 to its credit.

This one-day circus will be at the high school parking lot at Ridge and Euclid. There will be no reserved seats sold for any performance of the show.

Hagen Bros. circus comes to Arlington Heights highly recommended by the cities in which it has been presented this season. Local circus goers are assured a fine wardrobe, new acts and the finest of circus features in the programs to be presented here according to advance agents of the circus.

Circus acts to be presented include bareback riders, trained poodles, an aerialist, trained dogs and ponies, a ballerina, comedy juggler, clowns and many other interesting acts.

Tickets for the circus are being sold by members of the Chamber of Commerce and the Boy Scouts. Children will be admitted for half price. Tickets will be sold at the Emerald Shop until noon today, Thursday.

Enter burning home as children leap to safety

The alert action of an awakened neighbor probably saved the lives of Leo Lynch, 44, his wife, Caroline, 42 and their four children whose home, on Rohlwing rd., near Palatine, was gutted by fire early Thursday morning.

The neighbor, Mrs. Dolores Connelly who lives in a trailer behind the Lynch's two-story frame house, awoke to see the back porch of the house in flames. She dashed to the Lynch bedroom window and pounded loudly, telling them to get out. Their house was on fire. While Lynch rushed the children from their upstairs bedroom his wife ran to the back door and was severely burned by the flames that rushed in. When he couldn't unlock the front door, Lynch jumped through a window and attempted to smash the door down from the outside.

THE FIRST fire equipment arrived in time to help him batter down the door and free his wife and eldest son, Warren, 16. Lynch and his wife then returned to the house, which was now entirely in flames, to find the other children. They gave up the search after a few minutes. The children were later found outside. Carol Ann, 14, and Thomas, 7, both uninjured, had returned to the second floor and jumped from a window when the fourth child, Michael, 10, suffered shock when he leaped from a downstairs window.

Both the Palatine and Arlington Park race track fire departments fought the blaze. An Arlington Park sprinkling truck was also used.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynch and son, Warren, were taken to the Palatine hospital by the Arlington village police. After receiving first aid they were removed to St. Anne's hospital in Chicago. Mrs. Lynch was reported in a critical condition.

Michael was taken to the home of the Arlington Park fire chief, a block from the fire, and given first aid by the race track nurse.

Lynch works both as a farmer and bartender.

LYNCH and his wife sustained first and second degree burns of the face, shoulders, arms and hands. Both suffered from shock and inhaled a lot of smoke. In addition, Mrs. Lynch's back was severely burned. Warren had cuts on the palms of his hands and wrists, a small burn on his leg and small cuts on both legs.

Warren was released from St. Anne's hospital Tuesday, and the children are staying with relatives and friends in Chicago.

Mrs. Lynch's condition is even more serious than that of her husband. She is able to speak only a few words and due to her condition receives visitors for only a few minutes.

Both are swathed in bandages from head to foot. Two slits allow them to see. Mr. Lynch can also use two fingers on his right hand.

They are expected to live but will be hospitalized very thankful that all escaped from the fire, but the shock of losing personal belongings was very great.

Two ask re-zoning of farm lands

Two petitions for rezoning areas in the north suburbs were presented Monday to the county board and were referred to the county zoning board of appeals.

One petition, by Charles A. Hohmeier Jr., 3815 North Hoyne avenue, seeks a change from farming to light industry district for the one and a half acres on the east side of Busse road about one-half mile north of Devon avenue in Elk Grove township. The petition was submitted by Attorney Joseph A. Kolb.

The second petition, by Walter Palmer, Des Plaines, seeks a change from R-4 (residence, 10,000 square feet) to farming district for the one and a half acres on the southwest corner of Des Plaines river road and Morrison avenue in Wheeling township.

Lutheran Home scene of Fourth of July wedding

The first wedding ever to be performed at the Lutheran Home for the Aged, Arlington Heights, took place in their chapel the afternoon of July 4.
Mrs. Paulina Crum, a resident, is the great aunt of the bridegroom, John A. Clark, whose bride was Susan M. Vahrenwald. They are both Chicagoans. Rev. John M. Kempf performed the ceremony.
Many of the home's residents attended and sang at the service. Mrs. Minnie Klein played the piano. A reception, which Mrs. Crum attended, was held in Chicago.

Camp Reinberg offers vacation for city children

Camp Reinberg, adjacent to Deer Grove Forest Preserve, Palatine, is an inter-racial, inter-denominational camp for youngsters from low-income city families.

The camp offers these children an opportunity to have their camping experience under the guidance of group leaders who work with them through the year and who can help them make the most of a new and adventurous setting.

Services of a specialized staff is offered to help children and group leaders find simple outdoor living an adventure. They cook over an open fire, explore lakes and fields and woods, fish and go boating, create with their hands from natural materials, participate in folk dancing in the evening and share experiences around a campfire.

In addition they get acquainted with and participate with other camping groups, including those of different racial and cultural backgrounds.

These children come from three welfare agencies in Chicago: Marcy, a Jewish center; Newbury for Negroes; and the County Aid to Dependent Children, a center for white people. Children from each of these welfare agencies comprise one of three units at the camp, which houses 96 youngsters. Each unit has four cabins housing eight children and their counselor and a recreation hall.

These youngsters ranging from 8 to 14 are divided into the younger girls and older girls according to units. Boys are also divided in this manner. The children mix freely with each other throughout the day. Unit activities are planned at night.

Activities at this 60 acre camp include water front activities, camp craft, nature studies, hikes, explorations, camp outs and donkey rides. Evening entertainment includes bonfires, games, square dancing and anything else the youngsters might like to do. The directors instead of telling the children what to do let them decide for themselves. The children then respond with more enthusiasm.

While taking this reporter around the grounds, Jim Gronseth, staff member, explained how the camp operates. He said, "We ask the children what they would like to do and then we help them." The camp personnel believes in self expression.

For instance, they were having a fun house for their going away party last Friday. The children made all the paintings and produced the entire event themselves using their ideas and very little to work with. These children are taught to work with practically nothing. This prevents dissatisfaction when they go home and also teaches them to get along with few materials and still have a wonderful time.

For the fourth of July celebration the youngsters had field events, a picnic, supper, a hunt, a play, fireworks and a grand march before which each received a sparkler to carry in the march. This was all planned by the children with the help of the staff.

Some of these children have never been on a farm. They don't know how to distinguish one animal from another. While at Camp Reinberg, they are taken to a nearby farm to observe a farm in action.

All agreed the meals were excellent. They eat at the same time in the same hall. Ten are seated at a table with two staff members at each table. Special tasks are assigned to all in the dining room.

Religious services are also available to all.

Cost of operation is borne partly by the social agencies who send their children to camp Reinberg. The rest of the cost must be met by private subscription.

Facilities include, besides living quarters for each unit and the staff, a dining hall, infirmary, recreation hall, administration, maintenance and permanent staff housing. These buildings are leased from Cook County Forest Preserve.

The children spend 12 days at the camp. The settlement houses from which they come send their own personnel with the group. The camp itself is very well staffed. Staff members include:

WOODEN SIDEWALK

The wood used in the United States each year would be enough to build a walk twenty feet wide, two feet thick, and nearly 240,000 miles long. The World Book Encyclopedia says this boardwalk would be long enough to extend from the earth to the moon.

Dorothea Chant, director of the Camp Reinberg Association, which is now three years old; Virgil Brown, graduate school of social work of the University of Minnesota, all phases of outdoor living; Jim Gronseth, graduate of Carleton college, Minnesota, water front activities and dining room director; Mel Ozinga, social worker from Cornell college, Iowa; Virgil Brown's assistant, Norma Ozinga, store and library; and La Rayne Feteck, graduate of the department of Fine Arts of the University of Minnesota, arts and crafts director.

Three privileged to attend conference honoring philosopher

Mrs. Geo. N. Tuttle, president of Arlington Heights Woman's Club, with her guests Rev. Milo J. Vondracek, former pastor of Arlington Heights Methodist church and Rev. Robt. R. Klepper, pastor Prospect Heights Community church, had the privilege of attending a conference of club presidents and program chairmen, Tuesday afternoon at the Stevens hotel.

The honored guest was Albert Schweitzer, noted philosopher from French Equatorial Africa, who was presented with a check of $1,000 for his hospital in Africa.

Distinguished guests included Governor Stevenson, Mayor Kennedy, the president of the University of Chicago, and the heads of leading civic organizations, also women's clubs in metropolitan Chicago.

The address of Mr. Schweitzer although it had to be interpreted from the French in which he spoke, was awe-inspiring. The guests from Arlington and Prospect Heights felt that theirs was a rare privilege to be a part in such a gathering. It was made possible by the membership of Arlington Heights Woman's Club in conference, Club Presidents and Program Chairmen.

Notice of Public Hearing

Notice is hereby given by the Board of Education of School District No. 25 in the County of Cook, State of Illinois, that a tentative budget and appropriation ordinance for said school district for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1949, will be on file and conveniently available to public inspection at the South School, 301 West South Street, Arlington Heights, Illinois, from and after 8:00 o'clock a. m. Friday, July 15, 1949.

Notice is further given hereby that a public hearing on said budget and appropriation ordinance will be held at 8:00 o'clock p. m., Tuesday, August 16, 1949, at the South School, 301 West South Street, Arlington Heights, Illinois.

Dated this 15th day of July 1949.

Dedicate new Boy Scout Camp Napowan

Camp Napowan, the summer camp of the Northwest Suburban Council, was officially dedicated for the use of Boy Scouts throughout the Council territory. The dedication ceremony took place in the main lodge at camp Sunday.

W. A. Miles and Otto E. Harz, co-chairmen of the Camping and Activities committee, both expressed themselves as seeing a long sought dream come true. Scout Executive Stanley H. Huntington introduced the camp staff for the 1949 season. The dedication speech was made by D. P. Lewis, in which he expressed the desire that Camp Napowan will serve to give a better Scouting program to boys in the 14 communities of the Northwest Suburban Council. In his dedication presentation, he thanked all who had participated in the building of the camp through their contribution of both time and money.

Following the dedication, those assembled from the Council territory and also from the area near the camp were invited to visit the various facilities and to become acquainted with the various phases of the camp operation.

Scouts of the Northwest Suburban Council have already officially initiated Camp Napowan. They arrived in camp last Tuesday afternoon to become the first campers in the new summer camp of the Northwest Suburban Council. They were greeted on arrival by Program Director Barney Cook. Highlight of the first day was supper all together in the new main lodge, which serves as the dining room and recreation hall and includes all the facilities of storage and preparation of their food.

Seventy campers and the 20 members of the camp staff make the woods on Lake Napowan ring with their activity. Already the Scouts have taken short exploratory hikes from camp and will be hiking out farther and farther into interesting spots near the camp site.

Summer band concert features cornet solo tonight at 8:30 p. m.

The summer band of Arlington Heights will present its second concert of the season Thursday, July 14, at 8:30 p. m. at the recreation park.

Feature of the program will be a cornet solo, "Trees," by Paul Siegert. Paul attends Principia college, Elmhurst, Illinois, and has been a member of the Arlington Heights summer band for the past three years.

Last year Paul helped to organize the college band and then directed it. He plays in both the college band and orchestra and in the Alton Symphony orchestra.

Frederick C. Schmoyer, band director, said that the band would be glad to play any requests as long as they have the music. So when you attend, bring your requests with you.

The program for this concert is as follows:

March, "Washington Post" Sousa
Overture, "Morning, Noon and Night" von Suppe
March, "United Nations" King
Cornet Solo, "Trees" Rasbach
Paul Siegert—soloist
"In a Persian Market" Ketelbey
"Tea for Two" Youmans
"Far Away Places" Youmans
Whitney and Kramer
Concert March, "Hall of Fame" Olivado
Selections from "The Mikado" Sullivan
March, "Anchors Aweigh" Zimmermann
Four more concerts will be presented this summer.

Beware of the solicitors and 'gyp artists'

The season is again here when many door-to-door solicitors and in many cases "gyp-artists" are taking local residents for all they possibly can. Some of the most prevalent cases are the fellows who call themselves "landscapers" and sell humus soil, usually preying on the women folk when the men are at work; or the photographers who practically offer to give photos, gratis and wind up taking twice the normal fees of reputable photo studios.

Then there are the catch basin cleaners who clean your catch basins for a nominal fee of about $5.00 and charge ridiculous fees for minor repairs of replacing a few bricks or blocks, not to mention many other solicitors in other lines.

Perhaps the best advice to the housewife is not to contract for anything until the husband okay's it, especially if it be from some unknown firm or solicitor.

In an interview with village clerk Forrest Davis, he said: "Arlington Heights is no different from other neighboring communities. They all have undesirable, who fleece the local people with all kinds of rackets each year. Many times the solicitors do have permits or licenses, but that does not mean that they are reputable business folk." The best slogan is "beware of them all, until you know with whom you are dealing."

Do You Get Your Money's Worth in Today's Home Appliances?

If You Need a New Appliance For Your Kitchen or Home Laundry, Be Sure to Read the Truth About Present-day Quality and Prices!

With so many conflicting stories making the rounds about all lines of merchandise and their prices, you may be wondering about the true value of today's appliances.

The fact is, you get more real value for your money in a good electric appliance today than in almost any other purchase you can make.

As an example, we have a new 1949 Hotpoint 6-cubic-foot refrigerator that you can buy for $189.75 — only $10 more than the same size and kind cost in 1939 — yet it's a great deal better. With today's dollar worth just 60 cents in terms of the 1939 dollar, we can honestly say that the actual cost of this new, post-war refrigerator is really a lot less.

By comparison, look at the price increase in automobiles, houses, or almost anything else you buy — up from 50 to more than 100 per cent.

If you are thinking of buying a new appliance, we see no reason for you to wait. We honestly believe that at today's low prices you will get the greatest dollar-for-dollar values in appliance history.

Quality is at an all-time high. From new post-war factories, Hotpoint brings you new, modern appliances that are as fine as technical facilities and human skill can produce, and we sincerely believe that you'll never buy a poor appliance with the Hotpoint name on it.

At your next Opportunity, look over the new Hotpoint ranges, refrigerators, automatic washers, dishwashers and other appliances. We think you'll agree that you can "Look to Hotpoint for the Finest—First"—and be sure of the most for your money—right now!

Woodstock buys lot for parking cars

Woodstock city council last week took step number one in an effort to solve the much debated question of parking by approving purchase of the Harry Calhoun property at 217 Church street at a cost of $6,500.

The property faces south on Church street. It is 144 feet deep extending to the alley on the north which runs from Clay to Madison streets. The lot is 60 feet wide.

"We hope to be able to park at least 100 cars on the lot when it is all cleared up," Alderman Botts commented following the council's okay on the committee's recommendation to buy the property.

Crown 'Miss Palatine of '49' at carnival

Don't throw shirt boards away - they have plenty of use around the home

Shirt boards, those cardboard backing sheets used by laundries to protect shirts from the time they leave the laundry until they are stored away in dresser drawers by the housewife, have many uses in the home.

Many males, according to the American Institute of Laundering, research and educational center for the laundry industry, are in the habit of slipping such boards from their laundered shirts and dropping them into a wastebasket, ignorant of the fact that the young fry of the family, for instance, would have use for them.

What would children want with shirt boards? Just pass them out to the youngsters some rainy afternoon along with pencils, rainbow-colored chalks and crayons, and let them scribble and draw on this easy-to-handle drawing board. If they want to dabble in water colors, this board will absorb more water than paper will, and what child doesn't like to use lots of water in the painting process?

CHILDREN can make their own jigsaw puzzles, merely by pasting pictures on the discarded shirt board, cutting it up, and fitting the pieces together again. The board provides a backing for cut-out dolls or pictures of animals and can also be used for scrapbook covers. Adults will find use for that versatile shirt board when it comes to painting windows. The board may be held over the glass windowpane while painting the wooden window sections. Then the cardboard instead of the glass will receive the excess paint. It can be used as a guide, too, in painting a two-toned piece of furniture, so that one color will not run into the other.

Those whose tastes run to stencils can draw their own original designs on shirt boards. It is then an easy matter to cut and paint them on nursery, kitchen and bathroom walls.

Women of the house will find that shirt boards are stiff enough to hold sweepings when no dust pan is handy. Some housewives keep a supply of them in their basements and garages and reach for one when they are overcome with the cleaning urge. If you're building or remodeling a home, there's additional reason for saving those shirt boards. Stack them near the old broom used for sweeping up wood shavings, plaster particles, and the mud and dirt which is daily tracked into the house by workmen.

AND WHEN it comes to preparing food for the family, housewives will find these shirt boards come in handy. Vegetables or fruit for a salad could be peeled on one of these boards and then cardboard and peelings disposed of. Because of the absorbent properties of the cardboard, there would not be the possibility of breakage or spillage of the wet refuse (as is the case of paper) before the board and contents were placed in the garbage can. Two of these boards could be used for sifting small quantities of flour.

School consolidations cut 129 to 37 in McHenry county

The latest in the series of school district consolidations in McHenry county officially took effect July 1, when Harvard Community Consolidated District No. 50 became the official unit of 26 grade school districts, and the Harvard high school district by mandate of the voters in that area.

Consolidation has made huge strides in McHenry county since it began in 1946. 129 grade school districts at the end of 1945 have been shortened to 37 today.

Questions on G. I. bill

Question: My wife and I both were in service and now we'd like to homestead in Alaska. Can we count both her service and mine for homestead entry purposes.

Answer: Yes. Public Law 82 (May 31, 1941) provides that husband and wife who both are entitled to service credit are permitted to aggregate their periods of service and count them as one for homesteading purposes. Veterans interested in obtaining acreage in Alaska may request the circular "Answers to Questions by Servicemen about Land Settlement in Alaska" (or specific information about other available lands open for entry) from the General Land Office, Department of Interior, Washington, 25 D. C.

Question: Are Filipinos listed as "missing" during the war entitled to any benefits under the U. S. Government.

Answer: Yes. Public Law 241 extends benefits of the Missing Persons Act to certain members of the military forces of the Commonwealth of the Philippines.

Question: I have been drawing $57.50 each month from my $10,000 war risk insurance policy since my discharge from the army after W. W. I. Are such payments discontinued when the $10,000 is exhausted?

Answer: No. Payments may be continued for the remainder of your life provided your total disability remains unchanged.

Flight of aircraft over Arlington to be led by LCDR McCarthy

On August 7th, as they have done in the past two years, the U. S. Naval Air Station, Glenview, Illinois, will join Arlington Heights in the celebration of another, the 3rd Annual Arlington Heights Festival, by dispatching a flight of aircraft to fly over the city.

A squadron of F4U Corsair fighter planes will be led in flight, and commanded by Lieutenant Commander James McCarthy of Western Springs, Illinois. Lieutenant Commander McCarthy was a naval pilot during the war, fighting with personal vengeance, after having been shot down over Pearl Harbor by the Japanese December 7, 1941.

LCDR McCarthy is a member of the Organized Naval Air Reserve at NAS, Glenview.

Good Pasture

Ladino clover and alfalfa plus a mixture of grasses will give a lot of pasture, if the land is in proper condition. Sudan grass grows well in hot, dry weather and can be used in midsummer. Balbo rye and barley make good early spring and late fall pasture.

Civil service examinations

The U. S. Civil Service Commission announced an examination for Medical Bacteriologist for filling positions in various Federal agencies in Washington, D. C., and vicinity. Positions in the U. S. Public Health Service throughout the country will also be filled. The salaries for bacteriologists range from $3,727 to $5,232 a year. The optional fields of work include: General medical bacteriology, antibiotics, immunology, viruses, and veterinary bacteriology.

The age limits for this examination, 18 to 62 years, will be waived for persons with veteran preference. Applications must be received in the Commission's Washington office not later than August 16, 1949.

Complete information concerning the above examination as well as application forms may be obtained from the Commission's local secretary, Mr. Francis S. Hall, located at Arlington Heights, from civil service regional offices, or from the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D. C.

Honor Wm. Busse in renaming of Elk Grove forest preserve

Cook County Commissioner William Busse, of 100 South Emerson street, in Mt. Prospect, was honored Tuesday by his fellow commissioners in a resolution renaming the Elk Grove Forest Preserve in his name.

The resolution, citing Busse's 47 years as a commissioner, noted that he was still active as a member, and that at one time served as president of the board.

"His entire public career has been marked by dignity, devotion, integrity and capability, and in addition thereto he has protected with great vigilance the strict policies upon which the Forest Preserve District of Cook County was founded," the resolution read.

It declared further that the new William Busse Forest "is the most notable example of fine hardwood forests in the entire Forest Preserve District and is adjacent to the scene of the boyhood days and activities of Commissioner Busse." He said that his grandfather had settled in the area in 1848.

The forest is located generally west of Arlington Heights road, between Higgins and Algonquin roads, in Elk Grove township.

Suburban TB district has no patients, yet

The second annual report from the Suburban Cook County Tuberculosis Sanitarium District, organized on March 2, 1948, disclosed that "no tuberculosis patients have been cared for" as yet.

The report, submitted to the Cook County Board Tuesday, was placed on file without comment.

According to the annual summary, the directors of the TB District "since their appointment have been occupied with the administrative problems incidental to a new organization. As soon as funds are available to the district, the active treatment of persons afflicted with tuberculosis will be undertaken."

Eight girls parade before judges in beauty contest

Pictured above are eight quarter-finalists in the joint Palatine Legion-Lions carnival beauty contest last weekend. The girls were given preference of clothes, but it is notable that all three bathing beauties were the last to be eliminated.

Mount Prospect Youth in amateur contest

elimination contest at Lake Zurich carnival sponsored by the Lions club.

Gil, who was picked as one of the 5 finalists last Saturday night, placed third in the contest Sunday.

Gilbert studies music with the El-Rey Music Center of Chicago. His school selected him to represent them in the junior soloist class from August 15 to 20 at the International Guitar League festival at the Congress hotel in Chicago. He will compete with students from other schools from all parts of the United States.

Up and Doing 4-H

Th Up and Doing 4-H club recently held two meetings. The first session was at the home of Shirley Busse. Care of different materials was discussed by Carol Busse and Betty Linneman showed the girls how to sew on buttons and snaps correctly. A posture lesson was also given.

Plans for the local achievement day were prepared at this meeting.

A second meeting was held July 5 at the home of Harriet Moellenkamp, who showed the girls how to make apple sauce. Delilah Deeke discussed the different types of jar covers for canning and freezer cartons for home freezing. Marilyn Hagenow told how she was going to put a hem in her dress. A few of the girls were given a quiz on driving and safety.

Refreshments were served at the close of each meeting, and games were also played.

Palatine board members again turn down beer permit at bowling alley

No formal request for a beer license for the Helm bowling alleys on route 14 and Rohlfing road has been made, but when several members of Palatine village board turned a deaf ear to the suggestion made by Mayor Voss, Monday night that a beer license be granted it was not brought to a vote.

"It is almost impossible to prevent bowlers from bringing in their own beer, especially when the team sponsor is engaged in that business," stated Mayor Voss.

He suggested that a better control could be kept by the alley owners if he was allowed to officially sell the beverage.

Several board members and persons in the audience did not agree with the mayor, who closed the discussion with "well, that's that."

Forget the address?

THERE'S an easy way to do almost everything. And when you forget a business address or telephone number, the easy way to find it is to look in the Yellow Pages. For example—you remember the name of a hardware dealer but forget the address. Just turn to HARDWARE DEALERS in the Yellow Pages, find the name, and there's the address and telephone number. It's the easy way, too, to find a name when you know only the address.

You'll find the Yellow Pages equally helpful when you want to locate—

- Local dealers who sell nationally advertised services or trademarked products.
- Manufacturers or wholesalers when you buy in large quantities.
- Where to buy almost any product or any service, including those that are unusual and hard to find.
- Business or professional men with common surnames, like Smith or Jones. You'll find them faster in the Classified.

"Henry has a comfort complex"

Henry: "Now lay off, all of you! I'm just sick and tired of visiting in homes that're cold and drafty—I just want to be comfortable!"

Phil: "You'll be okay here . . . we have a Lennox Heating System!"

Martha: "You mean I won't have to hear Henry complaining all evening?"

Phil: "Nope—we have perfect comfort now. The air's circulating quietly all the time—clean, fresh, and warm!"

Martha: "Henry! You hear that? We're getting a Lennox, too—even if we have to burn wood in it!"

Phil: "No need for that; there're gas, oil, and coal models. Your Lennox dealer can install the one that's just right for you. C'mon, Henry, park your gear and I'll give you his name!"

Kenneth Stroker, formerly of Palatine, takes bride

Mrs. John Robert Warlick of Rankin, Illinois, announces the marriage of her daughter, Marjorie Warlick Strobe, to Kenneth Porter Stroker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Stroker of 4101 N. Kedvale ave., Chicago, July 7, in the chapel of the First Methodist church at Champaign. Dr. Nordling, of Champaign, performed the double ring ceremony.

A luncheon was served to the wedding party in the Lincoln room of the Urbana-Lincoln hotel. The wedding party included Mrs. J. R. Warlick of Rankin, Ill., and Mrs. Everett Anderson of New York City, sister of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stroker of Chicago, and Miss Ruth Stroker, sister of the bridegroom.

The bride was attired in a suit-dress of rose heavy sheer with forest green accessories and wore a corsage of white roses. For a going-away costume she chose an aqua marine sharkskin suit with which she wore brown accessories.

Mrs. Stroker is a graduate of MacMurray college for women and has done graduate study at MacPhail Conservatory of Music in Minneapolis, Minn., University of Wisconsin and Columbia University in New York City. For the past year she has been the supervisor of vocal music in the high schools of Benton Harbor, Michigan.

Mr. Stroker graduated from Palatine high school and then received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Knox college in Galesburg and a Masters degree from Northwestern university. He is a member of Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity. After teaching and serving as principal in schools in the Chicago suburbs he went to Hawaii where he was a teacher and a coach of athletics for two years. For the past year he has been director of boys special education in Benton Harbor, Michigan.

After a trip through North-eastern Canada they will be at home at 2619 Thayer drive, St. Joseph, Michigan.

Mary Ann Krause bride of Jerome D. Rogers

St. James Catholic church, Arlington Heights, was the scene July 2 of the wedding of Miss Mary Ann Krause and Jerome D. Rogers. Rev. George Stier read the nuptial service as the couple stood before the altar, which was banked with baskets of white and pink delphiniums, white gladioli, carnations, and palms.

During the service Mrs. W. Donlea sang "Ave Maria." The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Krause of Arlington Hts., was given in marriage by her father. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Rogers of St. Paul, Minnesota.

Miss Krause wore a dress of white net over taffeta, fashioned with square neckline, short sleeves and fitted waistline. A tiara held her fingertip veil in place. Matching gauntlets and a white net muff, topped with a white orchid and dropping lily-of-the-valley streamers, completed her attire.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Helen Anstett as matron of honor. Her gown was made up of white marquisette over peach taffeta, having a drop shoulder line of white eyelet. She carried a colonial bouquet of red roses and white carnations, with a headpiece of the same for her hair. Miss Marlene Scheiner was the bridesmaid and she was dressed identically to the matron of honor, except in blue. Her colonial bouquet and headpiece were also the same.

Best man for the bridegroom was his brother, Ray Rogers, and Harvey Rapp Jr. served as groomsmen. Ushers were Ray Truzinski and Kevin Harkins, cousins of the bridegroom.

A dinner was held following the ceremony at Behm's restaurant in Wheeling, with 50 relatives and friends attending. In the evening a buffet supper was served at the home of the bride's parents to 120 guests.

The newlyweds enjoyed a short honeymoon around Lake Michigan, but will take a wedding trip in August, when they will go to Northern Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. Rogers are now at home at 418 W. Campbell st.

Rohlwings enjoy 30th annual family reunion

The Louis Meier home on Busse rd., Mount Prospect was the scene Sunday of the thirtieth annual reunion of the John Rohlwing family, which now totals 130 including those who married into the family.

Mr. Rohlwing died 40 years ago but his wife, Mrs. Louise Rohlwing, who is now 85 years old, has attended all these reunions. The couple had eight children but three daughters have passed away. Descendants include 29 grandchildren, 50 great grandchildren and two great great grandchildren.

Pictured above are Mrs. Rohlwing and her five living children. Reading from left to right, first row: Mrs. Louis Oltendorf of Bartlett, Mrs. Rohlwing, who resides in Mount Prospect with her son-in-law, George L. Busse, and Mrs. F. W. Pfingsten of Roselle. Second row: William Rohlwing, Palatine; Mrs. Louis Meier, Mount Prospect; and Herman Rohlwing, Palatine.

Mrs. Rohlwing was born in Schaumburg and after her marriage she and her husband farmed on the old Rohlwing homestead, located on Rt. 53, south of Palatine. She remained on the farm for about five years after her husband's death and has lived in Mount Prospect for 35 years. Though 85 she still crochets without the need of glasses and enjoys general good health.

About 110 members of the family were present at the reunion. They all enjoyed a picnic dinner under a big open tent on the Meier lawn, after which the men played baseball and the women enjoyed a social time.

Heights now has a bit of Miami

Community Camera

A recent vacation trip to tropical Miami Beach, Fla., inspired Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Schapanski, owners of the Arlington Radio and Record Shop, to clever merchandising of the song hit "Bali H'ai" from "South Pacific."

While discussing promotion methods with Mr. Schapanski's brother, Harvey, who is in the advertising business in the vacation capitol, they hit upon using materials at hand in Miami Beach to make up a store window.

The Arlington Heights Schapanski getting ready for his return northward, loaded his Jeep station wagon with coconuts, small palm trees and sea shells. He also admits to "sand in his shoes"—a way of describing a yen for Miami Beach once a visitor has departed.

With clever lighting for high-lights, the materials have been utilized for a window display which creates the South Seas atmosphere described in the lyrics of the song.

Kupple Klub Knots

The Kupple Klub of the Arlington Heights Methodist church will hold a family picnic this Saturday at the Reinshagen farm on Algonquin road, Palatine.

Games and races will entertain the kiddies and will begin at 2 p.m. Supper will be served at 5 p.m.

Itasca church scene of Harter-Paddock nuptials

Mrs. Mary Helen Harter and Stuart R. Paddock Jr. were united in marriage last Saturday at the Itasca Presbyterian church, with only members of the immediate families present for the ceremony.

Organ selections for the service were played by Mrs. Andrew Engstrom, friend of the bride. Baskets of snowballs and babies' breath, mixed with greens, decked the altar where the couple repeated their vows after Rev. Louis Grafton.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Andres of Itasca and the bridegroom is the son of the senior Paddocks of Palatine.

Mrs. Harter was attired in an afternoon dress of pale blue organza, with a faint pattern of white flowers running through the material. She wore a matching halo hat and carried a colonial bouquet of pink and white sweet heart roses.

The bride's sister, Mrs. N. S. Sothras of Oak Park, and the bridegroom's brother, Robert Y. Paddock of Palatine, served as the couple's only attendants. Mrs. Sothras had on a street length dress of brown and white dotted Swiss, a white halo hat, and carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations.

Among the guests attending the wedding were the couple's three children, Lee and Deborah Harter and Greta Paddock. They were dressed in white, blue and yellow organza frocks respectively and carried little colonial bouquets of pink roses.

Following the ceremony a lawn reception for 90 guests was held at The Valley, home of the bride's parents. Recorded music was transmitted to the yard and lent a festive air to the occasion.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Paddock are now honeymooning in Michigan and upon their return will be at home at 315 N. Maple st., Itasca.

Mr. Paddock is junior editor of Paddock Publications and the bride recently retired as a reporter for the DuPage County and Roselle Registers, which are two of six Paddock Publications.

Cutting the wedding cake, which was the center of attraction at the Vetter-Koelper reception June 18, are the new Mr. and Mrs. Herman Koelper. The bride is the former Valerie Vetter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Vetter of Highland Park. The bridegroom is the son of the Herman Koelopers of Wheeling.

FAVORITES

For FLAVOR

by GARNELL DOVE

One evening after an active afternoon at a local club meeting Mrs. Charles Stadelman of 503 N. Belmont, Arlington Heights, concocted a satisfying casserole dish that has since become her family's favorite.

"My whole family loves shrimp and Spanish rice, so one time I experimented with combining the two, and found another quick-easy meal to add to my list," said Mrs. Stadelman.

Mrs. Stadelman uses a pressure cooker for speedier cooking but the dish is equally as good when prepared in a large skillet or heavy kettle.

The name is her own, she has never seen another recipe just like it and feels sure you will share her family's and friends' approval of this unique and rather exotic dish.

Young Chuck and Don, ages 11 and 9, are enthusiastic tasters for any new recipe their mother dreams up. They like large whole shrimp in this dish. Mr. Stadelman and the boys never tire of it.

Mrs. Stadelman likes to keep shrimp shelled and cleaned in the refrigerator ready for use at a moment's notice. She suggests breaking the shrimp into small pieces whenever you need to stretch this dish for unexpected guests.

"Just add a salad and a cool drink, then carry your casserole meal out into the backyard for a delightful summer meal treat," added Mrs. Stadelman in referring to appetizing outdoor meals.

Shrimp Creole with Rice

1 lb. fresh shrimp
3 cloves, 1 bay leaf
1 slice lemon, pinch of salt
Wash and boil shrimp until tender, about 6 minutes in pressure cooker, fifteen minutes regular pan. Cool, shell and clean.
4 tbsp. fat
5 onions chopped
2 cups tomatoes

2 cloves, garlic to taste
1 red or green pepper, chopped, or 1 can chopped pimiento
1 tsp. paprika, 2 tsp. salt
1 cup rice
Chili powder optional, also Place fat in pressure cooker, fry onions slightly, add green peppers and seasonings. Add tomatoes and when bubbling add rice and stir. Reduce heat, cover pan, set control at 5 and bring pressure up slowly. Cook for 10 minutes. Reduce heat quickly. Remove cover, add shrimp, when hot, place in casserole and serve. This may be kept in warm oven and served later if desired. Lengthen cooking time when using other types of cooking ware.

Mrs. James Lowther of Palatine will be featured next week with a cherry pie recipe.

Rowader-Stockhoff

Against a background of all white delphinium and carnations and gladioli, Miss Marian Rowader became the bride of George Stockhoff Jr. July 2. The ceremony took place at St. James church in Arlington Heights. Father Rosemeyer spoke the words uniting the couple in marriage, and the organist was Sister Amabilia.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen J. Rowader of Prospect Heights, was dressed in the traditional white, her princess style dress fashioned of white satin and lace and her veil of illusion net. She carried white and pink sweetheart roses.

Maid of honor, Miss Dean Stockhoff, sister of the bridegroom, wore a gown made of French blue organza and her flowers were pink roses.

The bride's father gave her away and James Rowader, one of her brothers, was best man for the bridegroom. Another brother, Thomas Rowader, and Alfred Zajewski acted as ushers. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Stockhoff Sr. of Chicago.

The newlyweds honeymooned at Goff Creek Ranch at Cody, Wyoming. They will be at home in Chicago after July 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Stockhoff are pictured above.

Bartlett-Overton

In the early summer twilight July 2, Miss Joan Bartlett was united in marriage to Daune Overton in the rectory of St. James church in Arlington Heights. Father Stier heard the vows of the couple.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Bartlett of Prospect Heights and Mr. Overton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Overton of Arlington Heights.

The gown of the bride was styled with fitted bodice and full skirt with lace edging the neck and train. She wore a veil of white net with a crown or orange blossoms. An orchid surrounded by white roses composed her bouquet. The bride's father gave her away.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Charles Williams, sister of the bride, and Miss Elaine Prite Jr. and Mrs. James Bartlett were bridesmaids. The three attendants also had gowns with fitted bodice and full skirt. Mrs. Williams' dress was of pink marquisette and she carried a colonial bouquet with yellow carnations. The two bridesmaids wore pink and aqua marquisette and carried colonial bouquets with pink carnations.

Best man for the bridegroom was William Overton Jr. and ushers were Daniel Hanley and Eugene Schoenbeck.

Approximately 200 guests attended the reception held at 8:30 p. m. at Decker's hall in Morton Grove. Mr. and Mrs. Overton are honeymooning at Stoney Lake, Michigan.

Out of town visitors

Week end guests at the David Swift home were Mr. Swift's sister, Mrs. O. L. Walls, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Bihl, and Captain and Mrs. David Hickman, all of St. Louis, Missouri.

Marlene Walls, 11 year old daughter of the O. L. Walls, will be visiting her young cousin, Shirley Swift, for this week. The week end was further highlighted by the interesting experiences told by Captain and Mrs. David Hickman, who have just returned from three years spent with the occupation forces in Frankfurt, Germany. The Hickmans are enroute to their new station in Fort Benning, Georgia.

Mr. and Mrs. William Morrow this past week end had the pleasure of entertaining their friend, Gartner Smith, and his sister, Miss Claire Smith, from Fort Worth, Texas.

Mrs. John Minton is enjoying a two weeks visit from her sister, Mrs. Roy Hall, of Detroit, Michigan.

Last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ritter entertained their friends, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Sax, and their two children of Hammond, Indiana.

Children vacationing

Riding on the Burlington Zephyr last Sunday, Carroll, 12, and Michael, 10, sons of the Frank Hubbards, were on their way to Denver, Colorado, to visit their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Biggs, until school starts.

The two young sons of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Miller returned home Monday after a week end visit with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Miller, of Lake Geneva, Wisconsin.

Wednesday Richard Miller, who is in third grade, will start his three week vacation with his grandmother, Mrs. Lily Hollenstein, in Chicago.

Jerry and Diane Dove, seven and three, children of the R. E. Doves, enjoyed a three day holiday with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Atkins, in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. William Warren traveled to Grand Rapids, Michigan, to bring home their three children, Jane, Billy, and Anne, who have been visiting their grandparents and aunt for the past four weeks.

Visiting the neighbors

Sunday afternoon guests at the home of the Paul Fellingmanns were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Weitzman of Chicago.

Tuesday night, Mrs. George Konchar, was hostess to her neighborhood bridge club. There were two tables for cards.

The Robert Blackburns, formerly of Wauconda and Arlington Heights, are now settled in their new ranch home on Watling road in the Sherwood district.

Entertaining ten of their former Park Ridge neighbors with an informal Sunday night supper last week were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bradford, new neighbors in this area.

Good fishing

The fish are really biting up at Trout Lake, Wisconsin! John Lindstrom, who returned home from a fishing trip in Canada and Wisconsin last Sunday, tells friends that this is the year that you can pick the size you want and throw the rest back. The families from this area who are going up to Trout Lake this summer will welcome this news.

Vacationists

The George Winklers spent their vacation in Long Island, New York visiting Mr. Winkler's mother, Mrs. Anna Winkowsky. Friday Mrs. Winkler and her young son leave for Spooner, Wisconsin, where they will spend the rest of the summer with Mrs. Winkler's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. William Linheim and their son, Don, have just returned from a vacation at Portage, Michigan, where they enjoyed a week of swimming and boating on Lake Michigan.

Fully recovered

The mumps have made their final rounds of the three children of the Fred Lockwoods. First, Frankie, then Muffy, and last of all Kathie. They've each progressively recovered from a siege.

Baptisms

The James Clark's infant son, who was born June 12, was christened Thomas George last Sunday, at a four o'clock service conducted at St. James Catholic church by Father Rosemeyer. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Clark were the chosen godparents.

After the service a supper was served at the Clark home to the guests, Mr. and Mrs. George Koeppen, maternal grandparents of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Jan E. Clark, paternal grandparents from Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Karnetz of Lombard.

Robert Alan Lindemann, four month old son of the E. W. Lindemanns, was baptized in a home service by Pastor Alden Salstrom of the Belmont Park Lutheran church of Chicago.

The infant's sponsors were his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Lindemann. Other guests were the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Lindemann of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. William Petersen of Chicago, Mrs. A. Salstrom, the pastor's wife, and the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lind of Cranford, New Jersey.

After the afternoon service the guests enjoyed a picnic supper served in the Lindemann's yard.

Miss Judith Lynn Schwanz, who is the latest addition to the home of "Hap" and Myrtle Schwanz, having made her debut on June 16, was one of the youngest party given for her aunt, Miss Alberta Ziegele at 821 Princeton ave., Sunday.

Sidelights of Arlington Heights

The Walter Stumpfs had dinner in Chicago this past week with Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Venema. Mrs. Venema is Mrs. Stumpf's sister. The occasion was a "happy landing party" for Mr. Venema, who is leaving on a three-month business trip to Istanbul, and inner Turkey. He will stop in London, Brussels and Paris on the return trip.

A recent caller at the Al Jasper home was Richard Leibfritz of Los Gatos, Calif. Mr. Leibfritz just returned from a three-month tour of Europe.

Nancy Crumlish of Crystal Lake, formerly of Arlington Hts., spent a recent week end at the G. E. Jorgensen home. Miss Crumlish, who is a graduate of Rockford college for women, will enter medical school in the fall at Philadelphia Women's college.

Birthday trio

The Monday Pinochle club celebrated the birthdays of three members at their meeting this past week at the home of Mrs. William Milligan. Mrs. Milligan, Mrs. Paul Geisel and Mrs. Al Jasper were those who were honored. These three "birthday girls" also celebrate their anniversaries in May together. Mrs. Carl Crooks made a special birthday cake for the occasion.

Michael Shanklin, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Shanklin will spend the next two weeks vacationing in Talmoo, Minn., with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Davidson.

Joan Unger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Unger, plans to attend a tea at the Congress hotel along with several other new students who will enter William Woods college, Fulton, Mo., this fall.

To sail for England

Mrs. L. V. Shacklee (Violet Buncik) and daughter, Sharon Ann, will leave July 20 for New York City and will sail from there July 22 for Lancashire, England. They will join First Sgt. L. V. Shacklee, who is stationed at the Burtonwood air force base with the Ninth air force. Mrs. Shacklee and daughter have been staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Buncik, for the past few months.

Misses Beverley and Verlene Rogers spent last week end at Lake Geneva. While there they visited college friends who attended school with Beverley when she went to Carthage.

Saturday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Stoik were Mrs. Stoik's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Haenker of Hebron, formerly of Arlington Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. William Mack and children, Marilyn and Marjorie, of Glendale, Calif., are visiting at the home of Mrs. Mack's sisters, Mrs. R. I. Champion and Mrs. B. E. Ekeberg. They plan to remain for several weeks.

Greetings were sent this week from Lake Tomahawk, Wis., from Mrs. Rudolph Lacina and children, who are now on the last lap of a six weeks' summer vacation. The first part of their vacation was spent at Mercer, Wis., and they are now at Lake Tomahawk, "living in a forest of huge Norway pines—miles from civilization," says Mrs. Lacina. They expect to return home the end of July. Mrs. Lacina's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Miller, spent the Fourth of July week end with them.

Ruth Paulus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Paulus, spent the week end in Milwaukee as a guest of Miss Margaret Dretzka. Miss Dretzka had a tea Saturday in honor of Ruth's birthday.

Northwest vacation

A busy 18 day vacation trip was made recently by Mr. and Mrs. Quentin Ford and two children, Kermit and Arlene, through the Badlands of South Dakota, Glacier National Park, Plentywood, Mont.; Great Falls, Mont.; Yellowstone National Park and in returning home they went through the Black Hills. Plentywood is Mr. Ford's hometown and this was his first visit home in 25 years. He has a brother, Clarence, who lives in Great Falls and the family spent a few days with him. At Camp Roosevelt, Yellowstone Park, the Ford family unexpectedly met Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Clabaugh and children, who were also visiting the Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Crane have been enjoying their vacation the past two weeks. Last week they visited Mrs. Clara Wight at Winterset, Iowa, which was Mr. Crane's birthplace. The week before they visited Mr. Crane's sister and family at Edwardsville, Ill. Mr. Crane came home during mid-vacation to attend a dinner in Chicago June 30 at the Mid-Day club at which time 40 year service medals were presented to two of his associates in the traffic department of U. S. Steele subsidiaries.

Mrs. Lester Stoike entertained her pinochle club Tuesday evening. Honors were to Mesdames Stephan Csanadi, Charles Deigl and R. J. Rizzi.

This week end Miss Ruth Paulus will travel to Lac Vieux Desert, Land O'Lakes, Wisconsin, to visit her grandmother and sister.

Newlyweds at home

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard La Monte, who were married June 25 at the Arlington Heights Presbyterian church, are now at home in Waukegan. Mrs. La Monte is the former Helen Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence I. Davis of Arlington Heights.

Mt. Prospect girl honored with bridal shower

Crep paper decorations and bouquets of yellow daisies decorated the Heimsoth home in Arlington Heights last week when a surprise bridal shower was given by Bernice Driscoll and Dolores Kerchke of Mt. Prospect and Lois Heimsoth and Mary Dittich of Arlington Heights in honor of Miss Virginia Hasz of Mt. Prospect.

Miss Hasz was seated beneath a decorated sprinkling can and was presented with a corsage of yellow daisies. After the beautiful gifts were unwrapped, the guests were served refreshments at a table with a yellow daisy centerpiece, and each guest was presented with a gift as a token of remembrance.

Miss Hasz will wed Donald Seckler of Northbrook September 10 at St. Paul's Lutheran church in Mt. Prospect.

Married Saturday

Mrs. Helen Hahnfeldt, formerly of Arlington Heights and now of Prairie View, was married last Saturday to William C. Ernsting of Lake Zurich. They are honeymooning in Canada and Niagara Falls and upon their return will be at home on their farm near Lake Zurich.

Oscar Johnson Sr. of 210 N. State road is ill and in the Sherman hospital, Elgin, for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Sander and sons, Leslie and Oscar II, enjoyed a one day trip Tuesday to Turkey Run, Indiana.

Circling the Town

by PHYLLIS KNIGHT

"Whew!" we said, when Rev. John M. Kempf of Lutheran Home and Service for the Aged told us that 4,000 people attended last Sunday's annual festival held all day at the home.

The guests came from Lutheran churches all over Metropolitan Chicago — Joliet, Elgin and Aurora — and even from as far away as Wisconsin and Kansas.

A continuous program of activities was provided, including two church services, one in the morning and another in the afternoon. Principal speaker of the day was Dr. Henry F. Wind of Buffalo, N. Y. Dr. Wind is president of the Associated Lutheran Churches of America, as well as executive secretary of both the Hospices and Lutheran Service society of New York.

Visitors found plenty of interest Sunday, for they toured the home, talked with the residents and enjoyed the good food on sale. In addition, the Harmony band of Chicago played a concert and also played for the two services.

Arlington Heights people played major roles in the day's activities. Mrs. Herman Schwolew, Mrs. Hugo Eiler, Mrs. Ed Pfingsten and Mrs. Roland Bolte were in charge of meals. (Mrs. Schwolew and Mrs. Eiler's barbecues proved very popular.) Mrs. Herman Koenig had charge of the coffee detail, and Gus Heidorn of ice cream and candy sales.

Special police of the village were a tremendous help in handling the huge crowd, as was the messenger service of the Boy Scouts troops 7 and 37, led by Martin Freeman. Donald M. Kempf provided sound equipment, and the services were broadcast into the home for residents who couldn't attend in person.

In short, it was the cooperation of "all hands" which made the festival of the Lutheran home the great success it was.

Under the big top

Yes, the "big top" is in Arlington Heights today. Thursday, when the Chamber of Commerce sponsored Hagen Brothers circus plays two performances.

The performances will be at two thirty in the afternoon and eight o'clock in the evening, and the high school parking lot at Ridge and Euclid is where the big top has been erected. Tickets—children are admitted for half price—may be obtained from members of the Chamber of Commerce or at the door.

Hurry — hurry — hurry, say members of the Chamber of Commerce. This is a really good circus, highly recommended with all the traditional acts — clowns, bareback rides, the kind of the high wire artists, animal acts, etc. In fact, adults will find their childhood memories of what a circus is like brought back to life, and children will really be enthralled.

And that's not all! Proceeds from the circus go into the Chamber of Commerce "activity fund," the major part of which is earmarked for the public library-to-be of Arlington Heights. So, those who attend the circus will not only be royally entertained, but will be benefiting themselves—the village will be one step farther toward a new library.

Sunday ceremonies

This Sunday afternoon promises to be an exciting one for the young people of St. Peter Lutheran church—all the young people of the community, for that matter—for that's when the ground-breaking ceremonies for the new St. Peter Youth center will be held.

At three o'clock the ceremonies will begin on the grounds adjoining the Lutheran school (The new building will connect with the school.) Rev. L. V. Stephan will conduct the service, and organ music from the tower of St. Peter church will be broadcast via a loudspeaker.

Following the services, the members of the Walther league will hold an ice cream social. All villagers—especially the young people—are invited to attend Sunday to see what promises to be a fine meeting place for the young people of the community.

Stork feathers

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Krueger of Arlington Heights are proud to announce the birth of two grandchildren, born two days apart. Their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mensching, have a son, Roger Rodney, born July 1. He tipped the scales at 8 pounds.

July 3 a daughter was born to their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Krueger. She has been named Peggy Ann and weighed in at 7 pounds 10 ounces. Peggy also has a sister, Frances, 2½, who is anxious to play with her.

The mothers shared the same room at St. Joseph hospital in Elgin. They are all residents of Arlington Heights.

People are talking about . . .

The tremendous amount of home building going on in "our town." Last week's Herald crystallized in our minds the thoughts most everyone already had. Everywhere one looks he sees attractive new homes, and everyone is ready to welcome the new neighbors.

The especially fine job the Palatine Legion and Lions club did with their carnival last week end. Not only did they have the usual rides, games and "eats,"

Harriet Davis, Wesley Schmoldt say 'I do'

Community Camera

The marriage of Miss Harriet M. Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Davis and Wesley W. Schmoldt, son of Mrs. Marie Schmoldt, both of Arlington Heights, took place in St. Peter Evangelical Lutheran church July 2.

Candelabra, huckleberry leaves tied with white bows lined the aisles and the altar was decorated with red baby roses and carnations. Rev. L. V. Stephan officiated.

Miss Betty Hogreve, accompanied by E. W. Klammer, organist, sang "Hold Thou My Hand" and "O Perfect Love."

The bride's gown of sheer white marquisette was styled with an off-the-shoulder effect, fitted bodice and small train. She wore a veil of imported net which was held in place by a tiara of beaded orange blossoms and carried a white bible with a white orchid and lovers' knot streamers. She was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Lorraine Heidorn, who wore a blue net off-the-shoulder gown with a large bustle-bow in the back, served as maid of honor. She carried a bouquet of pale pink baby roses with dark blue delphiniums and blue satin ribbon. Her head piece was made of ruffled net and matched the gown.

Bridesmaids were Miss Barbara Tichy and Miss Jean Morrow, who wore yellow net formal dresses fashioned the same as Miss Heidorn's. They, too, wore head pieces of matching ruffled net, and both carried bouquets of baby red roses with light blue delphiniums and yellow satin bows.

Melvin Remus served as best man and Elroy Koeppen and Roger Erber were ushers.

After the ceremony, a reception for 130 guests was held at the Mt. Prospect VFW home. The newlyweds left for a two week honeymoon in Chetek, Wisconsin, after which they will be at home at 111 S. Highland ave., Arlington Heights.

"The greatest and most important concern in any man's life is the assurance that he is justified before God. There are many enormous problems that confront the world today, problems in the field of economics, politics, social life and the like. But all of these pale into insignificance when compared with the problems of the individual sinner's justification before God."

Dr. Behnken continued: "It is impossible for the sinner to meet all the requirements of the law. God demands perfect fulfillment. He cannot demand anything less. Remember that God is holy and righteous and just. He cannot be satisfied with anything less than perfection. Imperfection is sin, and sin is an abomination unto the Lord."

Few slot machine permits issued in northwest Cook county by Uncle Sam

John T. Jarecki, collector of Internal Revenue is releasing the names of the persons to whom permits are issued for the operation of slot machines.

Few taverns in the northwest area are asking for permits although there are many clubs who are asking Uncle Sam's ok for the machines.

During the first week Lake county taverns led Cook county 8 to 7, although 32 Cook county clubs asked for 32 permits compared to five in Lake county.

The first tavern permit was issued to Matt Jans, who gave his address as Rand road and Euclid.

Fall Out of Summer

To paraphrase the poet: When summer comes, can fall be far behind? Designer Toni Owen has fashioned this dress to be equally comfortable under September starlight or July parasol. The patio skirt is of Juillard Featherly (three ounces lighter than corduroy), with side zipper and buttoned waist band. Shepherd Knitwear makes the matching T shirt. The ensemble, chosen by Cosmopolitan magazine's Male-Tested Fashion Jury (Kirk Douglas, Robert Sterling and Louis Jourdan) comes in red, caviar, taupe and gold. Its price—about $15 for skirt, $2.25 for shirt—leaves budget room for July juleps or autumn apple cider.

Trees need care when you're away on that vacation

Few people fail Fido or the pussy cat when they're ready for vacation. They'll get relatives, friends or the veterinary to care for the pets. Or they'll take them along if this is the only way out. Some people even have to stay at home if their pets are taboo at resorts.

Obviously, you can't readily take your trees on your vacation. Next best thing is to get someone to care for these stalwart and faithful friends, particularly if you're lucky enough to get away for most of the summer, reminds J. D. Riddle, field representative of the Davey Tree Expert Co.

SHOULD EXTENDED periods of hot, dry weather occur, trees may need help in satisfying their king-sized thirst. Rainless spells may be ideal vacation weather, but they mean trouble or even death for severely parched trees and shrubs. If you're going away for only a week or two, you may get by by thoroughly saturating the soil around tree roots just before you leave. Remember, this does not mean a mere sprinkling near the base of the tree. Generally, roots extend out at least as far as the branch spread, something that might be surprising to many home owners. And they burrow deep in search of food and moisture. Brief watering helps the grass, but not tree roots.

Carried six billion air mail letters.

Asks county to prohibit removal of top soil from farm areas

The Cook County Truck Gardeners' and Farmers' Association, from its headquarters in Des Plaines, has urged the county board to prohibit the removal of top soil from land in residential and farming districts because it "destroys natural drainage" and is favorable to an unwanted growth of weeds.

In a vigorous protest, by resolution, the association asked the commissioners to amend the county's zoning laws so that removal of top soil or black dirt be restricted only to industrial districts and then, "only when the land to be stripped is a reasonable distance from land used for farming purposes."

The board referred the request to its Zoning Board of Appeals.

The farmers' organization resolution, passed on June 18th, was sent to the county board by Henry Gerken, secretary, from 723 Pearson street, Des Plaines. It declared the taking of topsoil from the land "destroys its natural drainage, and the standing water becomes stagnant and mosquitoes, flies and other pests are bred." Also, it stated that such action was a "nuisance" and caused the "rapid growth of weeds."

PALM TREES

Like a pretty girl with brains, palm trees are useful as well as decorative. Besides furnishing a romantic background for tropical movies, they supply palm fibers from which hats, mats, baskets, and fabrics are woven. According to Childcraft books, date and coconut palms are sources of food, and houses in tropical countries are thatched with fan-like palm leaves. By-products of the coconut palm include oil for soap and margarine. Sago starch is made from roots of the palm tree, of which there are more than 1,500 varieties.

Leaders to meet this week in Heights softball play

On a dark and rain threatened evening, Riviera outlasted Deiber nine last Tuesday. The game at the start looked as if four or five innings would be the limit because of the stormy skies. However, to the dismay of Deiber's who held leads of 2-1 and 4-3 as late as the fifth inning, the game went the full seven. The Milwaukee Ave. Aces pushed across 2 runs in both the sixth and seventh frames to win, 7-4.

Roy Genelle and Vic Heimsoth put Carley Nick, Riviera moundsman in the hole in the second frame when they connected for consecutive homers. However, because of a cluster of Deiber errors and timely hits by Ed Alten and Aug. Moyerick, Riviera came through with their first win of the second round.

Heimsoth was the losing pitcher while Charley Nick was credited with the win.

A BIG 7-run fourth inning gave Rose-Lo, first round winner, an 8-3 victory over the House of Rada last Thursday.

Rada started off with a bang in the first stanza when Bob Botterman and Bob Kleiner's singles were followed by Don Peeter's circuit blow giving Rada a 3-0 lead. That was the end of scoring for black and white for the evening.

Rose-Lo preceded the big 4th inning with one tally in the second when Jim Millay scored on Fred Kehe's base hit. Ten hitters stepped to the plate in the seven run fourth which was climaxed with Jake Rudolf's 3 run homer.

Bill Becker was given the win while Bill Wille was the loser.

BEHIND the 3-hit pitching of Herb Luehring, Riviera hammered out 9 runs on 12 hits to hand the House of Rada their third straight loss. The victory sent Riviera into a first place tie with Rose-Lo. Each has two wins and no defeats.

The game was never in doubt as Riviera scored four runs in both the second and fourth frames to win easily, 9-1.

Ron Fogarret was the losing pitcher.

J. GOEBBERT, with four hits and Al Weber, with 3 blows, led the assault on Pape-Guenther last Monday when Deibers Service Station climbed out of last place as they whipped Roy Meyer's boys, 13-10. Len Garms

COMING GAMES

Thurs., July 14, North vs. East Central.
Mon., July 18, East Central vs. Sunset Gardens.
Thurs., July 21, North vs. South.

Thursday, July 7, the North whipped Sunset Gardens by a score of 14-10 in the Mt. Prospect A. C. 16 inch Softball League. Both teams played a very good offensive game. F. Wolck and B. Lee led the North attack with four and three hits respectively. R. Busse and R. Meyers got three hits each for Sunset Gardens.

Monday, July 11, Sunset Gardens defeated the South, also by the score of 14-10. Sunset Gardens got off to a fast start by grabbing a 7-0 lead. From then on it was a nip and tuck game but the South fell short by four runs. R. Meyers and W. Stevens each had a homer for Sunset Gardens.

Illinois prep basketball take totals $273,000 for tourney

The "slow-down" is on in scoring, but not at the gate in the Illinois High school basketball department.

The Illinois High School Assn. has uncovered these 1949 state cage tourney facts and figures in its Illinois Interscholastic May issue:

- 1—Gross receipts from the entire tourney—district, regional, sectional and finals—were $273,061.62, compared with $258,787 in 1948 and $238,792.23 in 1947.
- 2—The average total score for both teams covering approximately 750 games in the championship series slipped from 93.8 points to 90.1.
- 3—Attendance for the series was 533,160, including 71,440 at districts, 315,590 at regionals, 97,830 at sectionals and 48,300 at the "Sweet Sixteen" finals in Champaign.
- 4—The "control game" trend has, in some areas, replaced "fire wagon" basketball with resultant lower scores.
- 5—The average number of field goals per game increased from 32.3 to 34.2, but the number of attempted two-handed shots zoomed from 17.1 to 24.4 and one-handed tries increased from 93.5 to 95.

Probably indicative of more concentrated defensive play, the IHSA's tourney survey showed an increase in personal fouls from 34.9 to 36 for both teams per game. As a result, the average number of players bounced on five personals rose from 1.8 to 2.1.

Gross receipts from the 1949 finals at Champaign were $34,792.23, plus an additional $1590 from radio rights. Other receipts were $26,360.47 taken at district centers; $146,881.04 at regionals; and $63,890.87 at sectionals.

The largest school check, after team expenses for all tourney play, was $673.69 which went to Aurora West.

Almost $196,000 has been, or soon will be, returned to participating schools in the form of host schools' shares, travel expenses and appointment of tournament surpluses. Other distribution included $61,924.62 to be applied to the IHSA annual budget.

Snead sets sights on Tam tournament

Slammin' Samuel Jackson Snead makes no bones about his determination to win this year's All-American Pro Golf Championship, one of the few major tournaments the West Virginia perfectionist never has annexed. Snead, however, won the 1946 World Championship at Tam O'Shanter with a 6-under-par 138 and lost to Lloyd Mangrum 71-70 in a playoff of that event last year after tying Mangrum with a nine-under-par 135 over the regulation 72-hole route.

Snead was the 6th player to file his entry this year.

Entries to the $66,200 All-Americans and World Championships (men's pro and amateur and women's open) at Tam O'Shanter Country Club (Chicago), August 5-14, close July 31.

Checkpasser caught

Theresa Taylor, whose worthless checks recently left three Glenview merchants $35 each in the red, was caught in Winnetka, plying her rubber check hoax, and is being held to the grand jury. Her case will come up in Evanston, where four other business places were her victims.

Softball tourney at Libertyville in September

The Libertyville Community club announced today that the third annual Northeastern Illinois night softball tournament will be staged under the lights at beautiful Memorial Field in Libertyville, Sept. 2-12.

Last season a record entry of over 35 towns sought places in the 22-team classic. The winner was Long Lake and runnerup Arlington Heights. Applications for the tournament should be filed immediately and prior to August 1 with the Libertyville Community club, c/o Ralph Giss, Libertyville, Illinois. Only 12 inch, uniformed softball teams are eligible and clubs will be permitted to use only players that were on their roster prior to August 6.

AFTER applications are received the Community club will announce the selections of the teams. A won and lost record should also be inclosed. The tourney is strictly amateur and first and second place winners will be given very large and beautiful trophies. A small entry fee will be charged.

Memorial Field is a new and modern lighted softball diamond. Adequate seating, press box, loud speaker system and one of the most modern scoreboards are some of the field's features. Over $5,000.00 in improvements were added the past spring.

Haseman's clinched the first half of the Palatine Community Park split season softball league Tuesday night as they trounced the Palatine theater 15-2 in a runaway game. Haseman's have won six straight and even if they lost their one remaining game to VFW could remain on top.

Tuesday Des Plaines VFW took over undisputed second place with a 12-9 victory over Danny Lind's Sport Shop team in an extra inning. Hayes was the losing pitcher and Kohler the winner.

Sunday Haseman's will play another good team in a special exhibition contest when Barrington provides the opposition. The park is available for any of the teams of the league to schedule outside opposition for Sunday evening games but thus far Haseman's have been the only team to take advantage of the opportunity and have given fans some A number one softball to watch.

Next week the first half of the split schedule will be completed Thursday.

Autoists urged to watch for kids of all wild life

This is the time of year when the youngsters of all wildlife are in extreme danger. Not from the hunter's gun but from his automobile. Just like human youngsters, these half-grown birds and animals are not yet qualified to cross the road safely.

On a recent drive from Champaign to Rock Island we counted three young coon, 9 rabbits, 2 hen pheasants and 2 skunks that had just been killed by autos.

We narrowly missed hitting a brilliantly colored cock pheasant that zoomed up from the ditch.

Night driving seems to take the greatest toll of these youngsters. We don't recommend that anyone wreck his car trying to dodge an unpredictable rabbit in the road but we have found that generous use of the horn and flashing of lights will save many a young life.

In the daytime, brakes and horn used instantaneously will avoid many of those awful thumps that usually means another pheasant or rabbit youngster has met an untimely end.

Wheeling Cardinals defeat Barrington

Wheeling Cardinals softball squad won their 16th game against six losses Sunday night when they edged Barrington, 5-4, on the Lake County court. Contest was an extra inning affair with the result decided in the thirteenth frame.

Bob Bettcher went the entire route for Wheeling, allowing Barrington just six hits. Defensive play was outstanding.

Mt. Prospect AC ends half vs Bensenville Motors Friday night

The Mt. Prospect A. C. softball team ends play in the first half of the Bensenville league Friday, July 15, at 9 p. m. when they play Bensenville Motors. The Mt. Prospect team has a chance to tie for first place if they win, and someone beats Des Plaines VFW. The Des Plaines team leads the league with a 5-0 record and the Mt. Prospect team has a 4-1 slate for second place.

Mt. Prospect A. C. opens the second half of the Bensenville league schedule Tuesday night at 7:50 p. m. against the strong Des Plaines VFW. The Vets beat the A. C. team in the first half for the only defeat the Mt. Prospect team have against them. The boys hope to even the series in this game.

The Wheeling Cardinals are slated to meet the Libertyville Community club in the Intercity softball league next Wednesday evening, July 20, at Libertyville in an important tilt that will have much bearing on the eventual championship of the league.

Last time the two clubs met, the Cardinals scored a one-run triumph. At the present writing Libertyville is 1/2 game behind the present leaders, Waukegan, who dropped a 5-4 verdict last Saturday to Wadsworth.

Riviera also gained a triumph last week by trouncing Wadsworth, 13-4. In another Intercity tilt, Libertyville whitewashed Lake Forest, 5-0.

Arlington Farms polo team to test Army

Len Bernard's Arlington Farms power-packed polo team will put its seven game winning streak on the line against a hard riding Army team Sunday afternoon, July 17, at 3 p. m. on the home field, Buckley road just north of Libertyville.

Fresh from a 6-5 triumph over the Kansas City Polo club, the Army team has a bold riding, hard-hitting squad. All have served with the Army Cavalry and have played polo from West Point to Japan.

Arlington Farms first place team after last week's triumph over the Detroit Gold Hats, figures to give the Army a strong battle. Already this season the Green & White colors of Arlington Farms have emerged victorious over some of the leading teams in the country. Texas, Billings, New York and Detroit have been included in the seven game streak.

BEES SING AND DANCE
while they work...
and why shouldn't they

Any beekeeper will tell you bees sing and dance while they work.

Have you ever watched honey bees in the garden going from flower to flower, sipping nectar? You'll hear them sing the only aria they know... their song of happiness and joy in their work. Buzz! Buzz! Buzz!

When one finds a new source of nectar, doubtless yet undiscovered by her sisters, she scurries back to her hive post haste and executes a dance. In rapid tempo and in exotic rhythm she spins 'round and 'round, with the grace of the most accomplished dancer. In no time at all her sisters hear the happy message and away they go to bring in the treasures she reported.

Honey is a food of joyous labor, gathered from garden and field, in glowing sunshine, amid the singing and dancing of these most fascinating little creatures.

Honey is more than a sweetest of sweets. It's one of nature's most wholesome foods.

Tax Facts

Although the recent general assembly refused to vote any new or increased State or local taxes particularly for Illinois state taxpayers (the House killed the proposed increase in the motor fuel tax and the Senate stopped all other proposals for new and increased taxes), nevertheless the real showdown on higher taxes is coming in the next two years—perhaps at a special session this fall.

No one yet has found a way to keep on spending more money than his income plus his reserves. England has found that it can't be done, even with the help of billions of dollars from the American taxpayer.

Despite the fact that the budget of the State of Illinois, after Governor Stevenson gets through vetoing some millions of dollars of appropriations, will be in balance for the two year period from the first of this month to June 30, 1951, nevertheless the state will spend more money than it takes in from present tax sources during the two years and consequently the reserve will be depleted. Therefore, either new or increased state taxes will have to be voted by the General Assembly before June 30, 1951, or state spending will have to be substantially curtailed thereafter.

Using the State's own figures, the balance estimated for this July 1 in the General Revenue fund was $148,669,000. Of this, $44,509,000 was reappropriated for construction projects started before this July 1, leaving a net of $104,160,000 available to be spent in the coming two years. The General Revenue Fund's estimated income for the coming two years is $540,000,000. Adding this to the net balance of July 1 produces $644,160,000 in spending power. Appropriations by the General Assembly amounted to $638,407,000 requested in the Governor's budget, plus $7,027,000 appropriated outside the budget. In other words, the balance as of July 1 of this year will be completely wiped out two years from now and the Governor will have to veto at least $1,274,000 of appropriations to prevent a deficit.

Q. What difference is there between the wording of a church wedding invitation and a house wedding invitation?

A. The only difference is that in the house wedding invitation a home address takes the place of the name of the church, and "R. s. v. p." is usually added.

Q. What amount as a tip should be given to a porter who has carried luggage to or from a train?

A. Twenty-five to fifty cents, according to the number and weight of the luggage.

Q. What is the proper way to eat bread at the table?

A. Break off a small piece at a time, butter it, and convey it to the mouth with the fingers.

Q. Wouldn't you consider it lack of good manners for two persons to stop in the middle of the sidewalk to talk?

A. Yes; it is both inconsiderate and discourteous, and they should step aside so that they do not block the way for other pedestrians.

In the future

For small families, there's a new portable dishwasher that will wash, rinse and dry a complete service for four within five minutes. Two manufacturing companies last week announced fluorescent lights with substantially increased life spans. These new long-life lamps are now good for 7500 hours, it is claimed. The Underwriters' Laboratories has just approved a light switch with a glowing bulb attached. Purpose of bulb is to mark position of switch so you can find it in the dark, though makers also suggest it can serve as a night light. Neither wind nor rain nor snow will extinguish the flare from a petroleum-base product being marketed as an emergency signal for motorists stalled on a dark road. The old-fashioned wooden Coca-Cola cases are soon to be replaced by lighter cases made from a combination of aluminum and magnesium. The new container has definite merchandising advantages, it is said. Now comes the safety eyeglass for children. The new spectacles were tested by a steel BB fired at a distance of 35 feet. The lens cracked under the test, but did not shatter.

Church camp grounds meeting at Barrington

Officers of the Barrington Camp meeting association have announced that the 76th annual assembly will be held July 24 through August 7. The event is sponsored by 35 churches of the Evangelical United Brethren denomination. According to the Rev. Dore N. Ester, host pastor, a total attendance of approximately 10,000 is anticipated.

A program listing all Barrington camp ground events July 17 through September 11 can be obtained from the Rev. Dore N. Ester, 121 W. Lincoln ave., Barrington.

The Barrington camp ground is situated on a wooded 14-acre knoll at East Hillside avenue and Highland avenue, on the shore of a lake. The facilities include a tabernacle seating 800 persons, a children's tabernacle, play ground equipment, dormitory, 47 cottages, and restaurant.

Park Ridge votes for city manager

A city manager ordinance was adopted by the Park Ridge City Council last week. The new post created combines in one person the jobs of city comptroller and manager.

Thus ended several years of discussion and several months of council debate on the question of whether Park Ridge should have a city manager. Both parties had endorsed the idea in the last election campaign.

The ordinance was adopted unanimously within five minutes following a half hour recess during which six aldermen who had voted "yes" and four who had just voted "no" agreed to reconcile their differences. They did so by amending the ordinance to include a recommendation that any person considered for the job "be if possible, one with an engineering background."

Here are floor
plans of new
St. Peter bldg.

Architect Kloop has received the approval of the building committee to the adjoining floor plans for the proposed Arlington Heights Lutheran youth building. The plans show the many uses to which this building can be used.

The gymnasium has a seating capacity of 700 and a dining room capacity for 300 guests, if necessary. Ground will be broken Sunday.

New Neighbors

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ball
454 Banbury road
Arlington Heights

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ball have lived in Arlington only one month, but they are already "sold on" the town. Mrs. Ball told the reporter that she wouldn't trade with anyone.

The Balls moved from Morton Grove where they made their home for 2 years. They are both from the Chicago area.

The holiday-birthday family might be the name given the Ball family, since three members have birthdays on holidays.
Freddie, 3, was born on Thanksgiving. Betty was 1 the fourth of July, and Mr. Ball celebrates his birthday on Christmas day.

Mr. Ball is assistant treasurer of the Quaker Oats company.
The Balls are living in the former R. M. Brook residence.
Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Wittenburg
706 North Evergreen avenue
Arlington Heights

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Wittenburg lived in Arlington Heights 5 years before they moved to Woodstock where they resided for 3 years. They have now moved back to Arlington.

The Wittenburgs were originally from Rogers Park in Chicago. They moved back to Arlington because they knew the town and had many friends here.
Mrs. Wittenburg told the reporter.

Their children, Peter, 9, and Sue, 7, attend the North school.
A boxer, Gretchen, is the household pet.

Mr. Wittenburg is a factory representative with the Harper
J. Ransberg company in the Chicago area.

The Wittenburgs are now busy redecorating their home.
Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Meier
930 N. Highland avenue
Arlington Heights

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Meier moved from their farm in Mt.
Prospect to Arlington Heights in April. They are living in his father's home.

Mrs. Meier was originally from Roselle, while Mr. Meier resided in Mt. Prospect until moving here. They like Arlington very much.

The Meier and Helms Bowling alley on Northwest highway is operated by Mr. Meier. Mrs. Meier told the reporter that bowling is the family's hobby now.

The Meiers have a daughter, Janet Lee, who is 6½ years old.
Since they have moved from the farm, they have not had any pets.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Allen
21 South Ridge avenue
Arlington Heights

From Indianapolis, Indiana,
Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Allen came to Arlington Heights 4 months ago. Mr. Allen, who is a sales engineer with Stewart-Warner corporation, was transferred to this vicinity.

The Allens like Arlington very much, especially because of its fine schools and accessibility to Chicago.

Three children, Sherry Lynn,
5, Vicki 1, and Philip, 2 months, comprise the Allen household.

Mr. Allen is originally from Milwaukee, Wisconsin, while Mrs. Allen is from Flint, Michigan. Music and reading are Mrs. Allen's hobbies.

For the Fireplace
Galvanized steel coal hods make safe and inexpensive containers for fireplace fuel. Their simple lines blend with any background. If colors are preferred, these containers may be painted to match any decorative scheme.

PROSPECT HEIGHTS

Have trouble finding landing places for helicopter mail

A helicopter doesn't need much space to land. A square plot of ground 200 feet on each side is ample. Contrasted with the long runways required by conventional aircraft this is negligible. But getting even that much space as a landing site in each of 41 towns on the helicopter mail routes has proved to be a considerable task, according to T. H.
Reidy, president of Helicopter
Air Service, Inc.

"Landing sites have been agreed upon in 27 of the 41 towns," Mr. Reidy said. "In 9 other towns, satisfactory progress has been made in negotiations for sites. We expect that space will be secured in the remaining 5 towns at least by July 23, the date helicopter mail operations are scheduled to begin."
Landing sites secured to date were made possible through the cooperation of many different public and private agencies, Mr.

Reidy said. Areas have been provided at annual rentals not exceeding $1 by town governments, private citizens, local manufacturers, real estate firms, school boards, park districts, private schools, an American Legion post, a duck club, estates, and the Clearing Industrial District. Sites procured include: a trailer camp, a country club, a lake front, an athletic field, a railroad junction, a city park.

CREAMED
Wanzer
Cottage Cheese?

The smoothest and creamiest you ever tasted!

There's something very cool, tempting and appetizing about Wanzer Creamed Cottage Cheese. And what flavor! Made the old-fashioned way, by an exclusive Wanzer process, it's smooth and creamy all through and has a taste all its own. You've never known how good cottage cheese can be till you have tried Wanzer's.

The Wanzer routeman is delivering in your neighborhood, ready to serve you. Won't you give him a trial? Just phone and order a jar of Wanzer Creamed Cottage Cheese, delivered right to your door.

Change to OIL-PLATING!

A Winner!... Stay ahead of engine wear by OIL-PLATING with Conoco Nth Motor Oil. The exclusive additive in Conoco Nth holds an extra shield of lubricant right to the moving parts—OIL-PLATES them against wear.

Gentle Starting!... Even after standing all night, OIL-PLATING is still up there on the cylinders. It can't all drain down! No grinding "dry-friction" starts with OIL-PLATING!

Longer Life!... An OIL-PLATED engine means more miles between repairs—peak performance year after year. So, for protection—for power—for performance—your best buy is Conoco Nth Motor Oil.

Obituaries

Mrs. Emma Kastning

Funeral services for Mrs. Emma Kastning, late of Schaumburg township, were held Tuesday from St. Peter Evangelical Lutheran church, Schaumburg. Rev. F. W. Hertwig officiated and burial was in Lake Street Memorial Park.

Mrs. Kastning, nee Hattendorf, was born July 24, 1884 in Schaumburg township. May 28, 1906 she married William Kastning, who preceded her in death in 1941. Two brothers also preceded her in death.

She died at her farm home on route 72, July 9, following a lingering illness.

Surviving are two sons, Albert, Roselle, and Werner, Schaumburg; three daughters, Mrs. Helen Rodewald, Roselle, Mrs. Margaret Busse and Mrs. Lorraine Scamehorn, both of Mt. Prospect; seven grandchildren; three brothers, Henry, John and Martin Hattendorf and two sisters, Mrs. Herman Winkelhake and Miss Martha Hattendorf, all of Schaumburg.

Lloyd Mellor

Funeral services for Lloyd Mellor late of Route 1, Palatine, were held at Norris Chapel, West Chicago, last Saturday. The Rev. Paul Graham officiated.

Mr. Mellor died July 7 at Elmhurst Memorial hospital, Elmhurst, at the age of 60. He lived in Palatine 17 years and was born in Cobb, Wisconsin, December 19, 1888. He married Mrs. Elizabeth Bowes Keeney on November 8, 1911. The Mellors moved to Palatine from West Chicago.

Mr. Mellor worked at Arlington Seating company until he became ill 10 weeks ago. Previous to that he was with Douglas Aircraft Corporation.

In addition to his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Mellor, he is survived by two step-children, William T. Keeney, West Chicago, and Mrs. Martha Volkening, Harvard; four grandchildren, William Keeney Jr., Mrs. Muriel Dreibrod, Mrs. Marion Chrabot and Dolores Keeney; and two great grandchildren, Kathleen Chrabot, 2, and Robert Chrabot, 1.

Thomas Brodnan

Funeral services for Thomas Brodnan, late of 128 S. Chestnut, Arlington Heights, were held Tuesday morning from Lauterburg and Oehler's chapel to St. James Catholic church. Interment was in All Saints cemetery.

Mr. Brodnan was born March 7, 1887 in Czechoslovakia. He resided in Arlington Heights for 28 years and was employed at the Creamery Package Mfg. Company. He died at the Elmhurst hospital July 9.

Surviving are his wife, Agnes; children, Vera Garlick, Louis, Ann Cavanaugh, Hermie Wille, Joseph and Austin; 10 grandchildren and one sister, Judith Gabcik, who lives in Czechoslovakia.

ELLA GRIESE

Mrs. Ella Griese, of Northbrook, who died intestate May 21, left an estimated $35,000 estate. Her heirs are a daughter and a son. They are Eleanor Schier and Edwin L. Griese, both of Northbrook. Edwin was named administrator of the estate.

IN MEMORIAM

HELLBERG, RICHARD. In loving memory of our darling son Dickie who passed away 14 years ago today, July 19th. Gone is the face we loved so dear, Silent is the voice we loved to hear,
Too far away for sight or speech,
But not too far for thought to reach.
Sweet to remember him who once was here
And who though absent is just as dear.
Loving Mother, Dad and Sister,
Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hellberg and Carole.

LEE NELSON

Lee Nelson, of Skokie, who died May 30 left his $16,500 estate all to his widow, Kathryn. She was named executrix.

CHRISTIAN DIETZ

Mrs. Christian A. Dietz, Sr., of Glenview, who died intestate May 4 left a $1,600 estate to which her husband is heir.

MAY NORTH

May North of Des Plaines, who died April 8, left an estimated $13,000 estate. Her will has just been admitted to probate in Chicago. She left $100 to the Off-the-Street club and $100 to Mrs. H. Wright of Sacramento, Cal. The residue of her estate she left to a cousin who lived with her, Mrs. Charles Roland, of Des Plaines.

CARL SCHANLEY

Carl B. Schanley, of Skokie, who died intestate Nov. 8 left a $2,000 estate. His heirs are listed in Probate court as a brother, seven nephews and six nieces. The brother is Carl S. Schanley, of Skokie. The other heirs all live elsewhere.

RICHARD NASH

Richard J. Nash, of River Forest, who died May 7 leaving a $245,000 estate, left $7,500 to John R. Nash, nephew, and $2,000 to Mary Frost, grand-niece, both of Skokie.

Twin sons die

Collin and Kevin McDonald, premature twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. John F. McDonald of Ft. Wayne, Indiana, formerly of Arlington Heights were buried Monday in the Arlington Heights cemetery.

The babies were born July 6 and lived for only a few days. Mrs. McDonald is the former Gwendolyn Topping.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear husband and father, Gustav A. Dreyer, who passed away June 14, 1945.

Memories are treasures no one can steal.

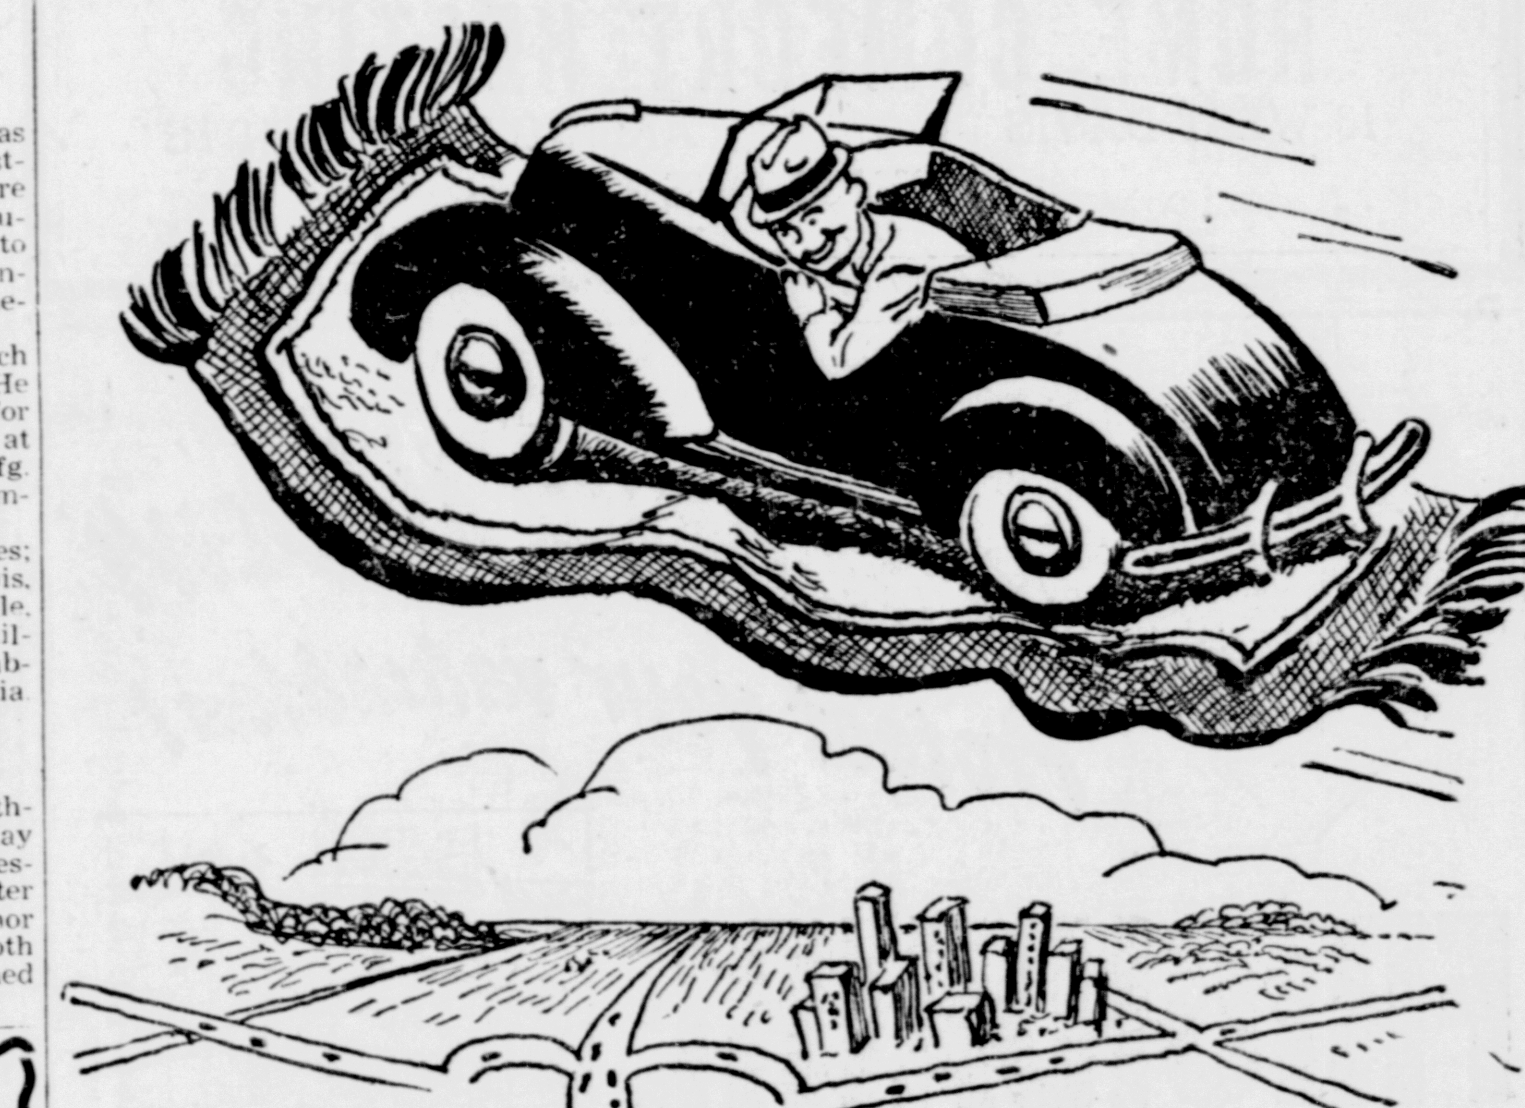

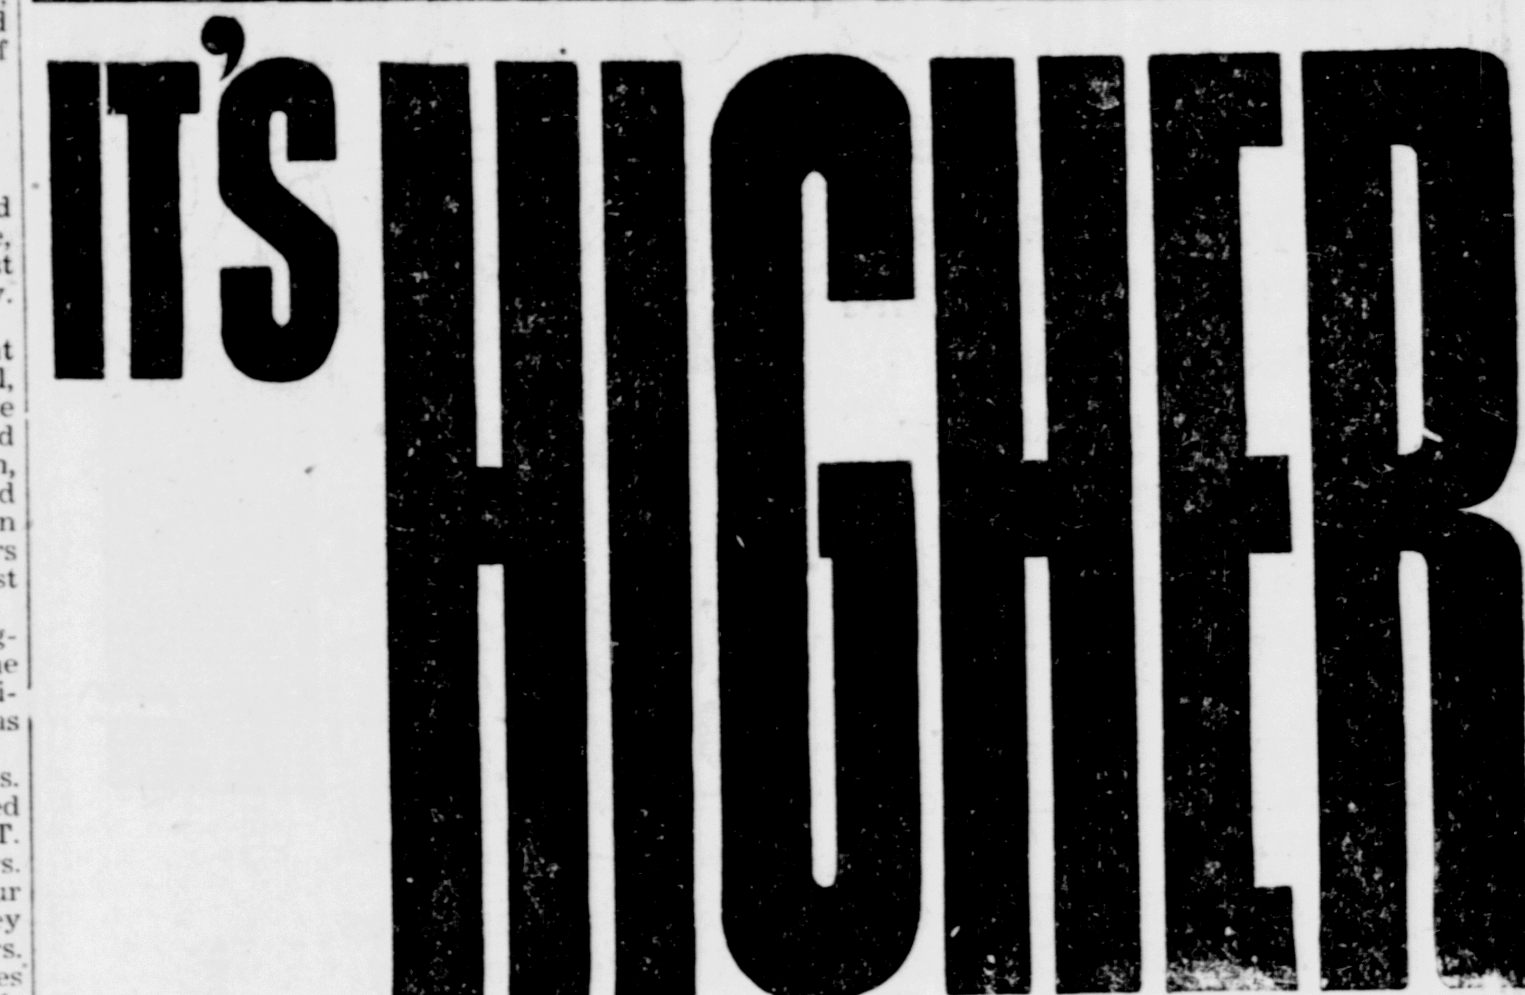

Death is a heartache nothing can heal.

Some may forget him, now that he's gone.

But we will remember.

No matter how long.

Highway worker killed

Joe Miller Jr., son of Mrs. Molly Miller of rural Richmond, was instantly killed Friday morning while cutting grass along route 12 for the State Highway Department. According to a report from Harry Ehorn, McHenry County Coroner, the young man, who is about 22 years of age, was attempting to cut the grass up a steep embankment about 2½ miles southeast of Richmond when the tractor turned over and caught him between the fence and the tractor. It is believed that death was instantaneous.

With the "polio season" just getting into full swing, the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has announced that a record total of $25,728,000 was raised in the 1949 March of Dimes campaign to continue the fight against this disease. Part of this sum has been allocated to schools and institutions in this area for polio research.

Corn grows high for this gardener

Herbert E. Mahumed, South Haddow ave., Arlington Heights, is pictured here with his son, Karl, 4½, next to his sweet corn which grew to the amazing height of 8 feet. On July 4 this corn was 6 feet tall when it is traditionally knee high. Mahumed planted his corn May 7, and said his neighbors insisted he was planting too early.

Since this picture was taken, the corn has grown another foot. Mahumed, who is a public relations counselor five days a week, calls himself an amateur gardener the other two. He planted the rows in his garden east and west instead of north and south much to his neighbors dismay, but has a bumper crop he claims.

Buster Keaton in 'Three Men on a Horse' at Chase summer theater

Big-time little theater is now "right in our own backyard." With the opening production of the rollicking farce "Three Men on a Horse" July 11 through 17, Chevy Chase Summer Theater in Wheeling gives to Chicago-land theater-lovers the first of eight plays in an exciting eight week season. The grand debut not only introduced a new peak in mid-west entertainment but marks the advent of the first "star" summer stock company to make its appearance in these parts.

Patterned after the famous "straw hat" playhouses that dot the eastern seaboard, Chevy Chase Summer Theater will bring such outstanding stars of stage and screen as Peggy Ann Garner, Nina Foch, Mady Christians, Tom Drake, Signe Hasso and Buddy Ebsen to be among its guest celebrities in the seven other plays.

With the exception of the opening play "Three Men on a Horse" which runs through Sunday, July 17, each production will be presented six evenings, Tuesday through Sunday. Curtain time is always 8:45 at the air-conditioned theater at the former Bon-Air Country Club one mile north of Wheeling on Milwaukee avenue (route 21). Reservations can be made at Sieburg's Rexall drug store in Arlington Heights. Academy award winner Peggy Ann Garner will star in the perennial favorite "Peg O' My Heart" from Tuesday, July 18 through July 23.

John Loves Mary at Lake Zurich Playhouse

After this week's murder mystery, "Ten Little Indians," the new Lake Zurich Playhouse turns to a play in a lighter vein—Norman Krasna's delightful comedy romance, "John Loves Mary."

John loves Mary, but a surprise package from Europe makes it difficult for John to marry Mary. The complications which arise involve Washington politics, the War Department, and the movie industry. This production can be seen Wednesday through Sunday, July 20 through the 24th.

John and Mary are played, respectively, by Harvey Korman, who has played leading roles in "Accent on Youth" and "Ten Little Indians," and by Joan Engelhard, who is appearing in her first lead at Lake Zurich.

Tickets are on sale at the box office, and reservations can be made by phoning Lake Zurich 4441, or by writing the New Lake Zurich Playhouse, Lake Zurich. Curtain time, 8:45 p. m.

Women of the Moose Portage Park chapter to meet July 19

Women of the Moose, Portage Park chapter 427, will hold officers' chapter night July 19 at 8:15 p. m. at the Moose hall, 5835 W. Irving Park road.

Ann Todd, 4344 N. Austin avenue, senior regent, has invited guest officers to hold the various offices in the Portage Park chapter.

Everyone is invited to attend this open meeting after which refreshments will be served.

The first time you serve Bing Cherry Salad you will find it will go over with a bang! Served chilled it is a natural for a hot weather salad. Too, there is not much fuss and bother in its preparation. Your family will be delighted with this taste sensation.

Bing Cherry Salad

1 cup butter cream
1 No. 2½ can Bing cherries
1 pkge orange gelatine
¼ cup lemon juice

Method: Drain and pit cherries; add water to cherry and lemon juice to make 1½ cups liquid. Heat and pour over orange gelatine. Chill until nearly set and fold in butter cream. Chill. Fold in chilled cherries. This may be molded in 8 individual molds, or it may be molded in square pan and then cut in squares.

Yield: 8 to 10 servings.

Way Back When

Our Aim: To Fear God, Tell The Truth, and Make Money

DuPage county in the days of Indians Roselle — 50 years after the Indians left

"Way Back When" is carrying its readers really far back this week. Our historian was told to furnish some details about early DuPage County. She went way back several hundred years. It is interesting reading. We have no pictures of those early days, but here are a couple that are in the memories of a few old timers of the Roselle area.

The land which includes DuPage county has been at various times a part of Spain, France, Virginia, England, the Northwest territory, Indiana, Illinois Territory and finally the State of Illinois. At that, it narrowly missed being a part of Wisconsin as the terms by which the Northwest was ceded by Virginia to the United States provided that if five states were made out of the territory, two should be constituted out of the land north of a due east and west line drawn through the territory intersecting the southern extremity of Lake Michigan.

When Wisconsin was set off in 1818 along this line, including the present DuPage county in that state one Judge Pope gave vent to his feelings which were headed and turned out to be very prophetic.

"A VERY large commerce of the Center and South would be found both upon the lakes and upon the rivers. Association in business, in interest and of friendship would be formed, both with the North and the South."

"State of Illinois should include a corner of the lake, with rivers pointing toward the Mississippi. Commerce on these rivers and lakes under one rule and state is the only answer for a prosperous area."

"A state thus situated, having such a decided interest in the commerce and in the preservation of the whole confederacy can never consent to disunion; for the Union cannot be dissolved without a division and disruption of the State itself."

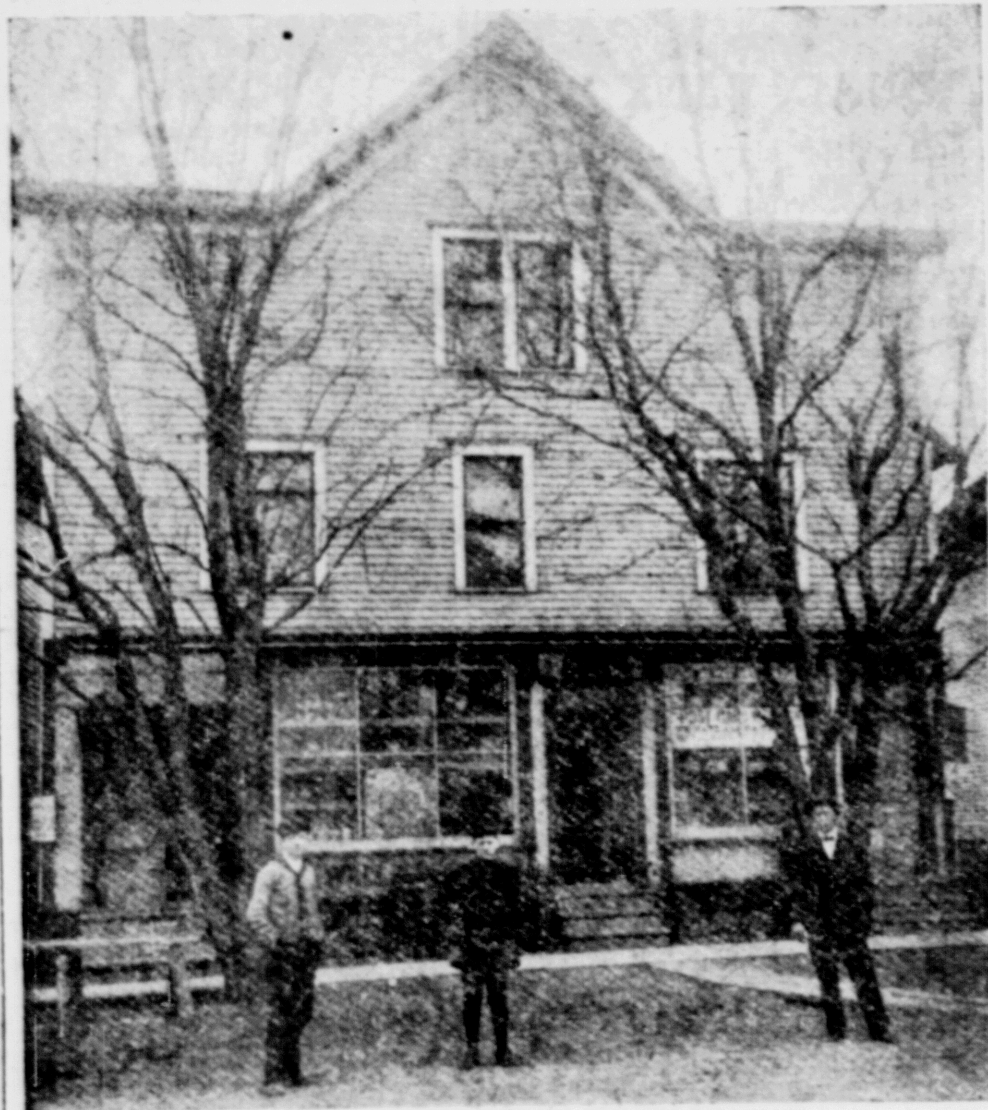

AFTER many words of discussion and argument, legal objections to the extension to a point farther north were removed and the line was established on the parallel of 42 degrees, 30 minutes where it now is.

The first white men to tread the soil of the state were Father Marquette and Joliet, and their attendants, who, during the rule of Frontenac, 1672-1682, discovered the Mississippi River and on their return trip passed up the Des Plaines River.

From 1682-1685, LaBarre was governor of the country and during his term of office LaSalle, Tonty, and numerous fur traders and missionaries passed along the Des Plaines to and from the Chicago Portage, a route of travel older than the history of the white man in America.

IN 1759, with Wolfe's victory in the heights of Abraham, Canada passed under English rule. However, the English did not take possession of any of the French posts of the Illinois country until 1765 when a Captain Sterling with a small force of 100 men established himself at Fort Chartres, the first settlement in Illinois, and the English flag first waved over the prairie country.

Various English governors followed until, during the term of Sir Guy Carleton in 1776, the American Declaration of Inde-

Those enjoying refreshments at the bar, left to right, are: Herman Troyke, now of Elgin; an unidentified man; and Fred Hattendorf, now deceased. pendence raised a new issue. In 1778, George Rogers Clark's conquest of the "Illinois Country" changed the destiny of the Northwest. By this conquest the country was transferred from English to American rule, and by the treaty of Paris in 1783, the entire Northwest as far as the Mississippi River became a part of the United States.

Until the year 1784 it was

● HOT AND HUMID

It begins to look as if the current summer is going to go down in history as the hot and humid summer.

That's been the weather forecast for the last three weeks and it's gotten to be so. Much of a routine prediction that the newspapers carry, set that heading for the weather forecast and just run it day after day.

The old saying, "It isn't the heat, it's the humidity," surely was applicable to the latter part of last week when there really was a little up in the temperature but the muggy, sticky clamminess of the humidity got worse than ever.

Everything shows the effect of the dampness; people, animals, and everything else.

A person's clothes are wet, the doors and windows stick, the walls are damp and a person almost sticks to a chair when they sit down. The dampness never did clear up in gardens so that a person could do any work in them.

● GARDEN HELPERS

It isn't all pests in the garden. There are some bugs that help a fellow out in his battle with the garden pests.

For instance, there are those helpful little lady bugs that are rated as an enemy of plant lice (aphids).

Not long ago, some sunflower leaves in our garden became covered with plant lice. There were green ones, black ones, white ones and red ones. They covered the under side of the big sunflower leaves. It looked as if they would sap all the life out of the plants.

Then all of a sudden a lot of lady bugs appeared from nowhere and how they went after those plant lice.

In two days the lice were cleaned out.

They had sapped all the life out of the leaves they were on but their progress was stopped and the plants saved.

The lady bugs, after doing that splendid job of cleaning up those aphids, silently stole away.

Where they came from and where they went no one knows, but they surely are welcome around that garden for they did a wonderful job and did it in a hurry.

● MORE RABBITS

The rabbits that have been raising havoc with gardens this year, especially the beans, were the subject of a discussion the other day when some garden fans happened to get together.

Nearly everyone was complaining about the rabbits getting most of the beans that were planted this year, but George Reinbold, who lives out in the woods and has more rabbits around than all the rest of us put together, said that they didn't bother his beans at all but that he had to fence in his tomato patch to keep them out of that crop.

Last year the rabbits simply cut down George's tomatoes like a woodsman cuts down trees.

Everyone said that the animals this year paid no attention to lettuce, although some years they nip it off as fast as it comes out of the ground.

It just seems that there is no accounting for what those pesky rabbits will do.

One season they seem to have a taste for one vegetable and then they switch to another. Just why they like to cut down tomato plants and not eat any of the plant is a mystery to all the gardeners. They just seem to do that to see how sharp their teeth are.

At any rate, there are so many rabbits around this year and they are increasing so fast that it looks like the rabbit hunters are in for a big season this winter. The animals are surely plentiful and they should be easy to get.

● CHERRY SAVER

Folks with cherry trees always have plenty of trouble with birds when the cherry season comes around.

The robins and blackbirds particularly flock into the trees and feast on the ripening fruit.

All sorts of stunts are tried to keep them away; scarecrows, tentlike nets over the trees, flashing tin discs and all manner of things. But we heard of a new stunt last week.

George Rohde was telling Harry Schoppe of a stunt they tried out at their farm that worked to perfection and it was all very simple.

They hung a salt herring in the cherry trees and the birds just wouldn't bother any of the trees with the fish in them.

One tree left without a fish hanging in it was quickly cleaned out by the birds.

Well folks, there is surely a simple remedy to save your cherries from the birds, so any of you who have cherry trees, just make a note of this new bird chaser in your garden notes and make use of it next year when the cherry season rolls around again. It's about as simple and easy as anything could be.

● EARLY FLOWERS

We have always liked zinnias. Their bright colors and stocky sturdy plants have always been an attraction to us.

Sure they are an old-fashioned flower, but then we're sort of old-fashioned ourselves and we'll take the husky bright colored zinnia in preference to a lot of newer fancy flowers.

Zinnias are usually considered a fall flower when their bright colors add a lot to the garden scenery and as table decoration in the home.

We usually plant a lot of zinnias but last year with a late garden start, we missed out. This year we got our seed in the ground early and the zinnias are already in bloom.

We'll have to reverse our estimate of the zinnia being a fall flower. We had our first bowl of zinnias on the table July 3 and there have been bouquets of them all over the house since then.

And the plants are just starting to bloom. If they can keep it up they'll last until fall and the zinnias will be a summer and fall flower.

They are bright and snappy and old-fashioned as hot weather.

LEST WE FORGET

I have been wondering if anyone else had a let-down feeling after yesterday, the 4th.

It seems to me we have come to a pretty pass when we cannot become inspired enough to have a parade on the Fourth of July. To me it is a tradition, one of the small things we can do to show that we realize what our country means. Where would we be if it had not been for some thinking men who thought enough of this country to declare it free? Where would we be if it had not been for other thinking men and women who gave their lives so that this freedom might be preserved?

No doubt, there were other 100 degrees in the shade 4th's, no doubt there were other days when people said "what's the use," no doubt there were other days when people went on vacations leaving a handful of people at home to carry on. However after seeing our town's demonstration yesterday I could not let it pass without relieving that pressure within. I greatly appreciate the Legion's efforts. It must have required a tremendous amount of work and planning, but it still left me cold.

Is the 4th a day to have games of chance with children spending money only to receive a paucity of prizes? I know some were more fortunate and received a larger gift but after watching one young man spend many times the value of one of these "prizes" only to go home with a 5c key chain made my blood boil.

I can remember the 4th of my childhood and not too awfully far back either. I was raised in Irving Park which at that time was not much larger than Arlington Heights is now. We always had a parade, every child entering received a ticket for free lemonade and ice cream, not a bribe but a token of appreciation. Those having the best decorated bike or wagon received a prize just as we did here a few years back. The park with athletic demonstrations, families brought their picnic lunches, everyone mingled and had a grand time. In the evening a fireworks display.

They did not depend on the business men to carry the load but collected 25c from each household to defray the expenses.

Everyone felt he had a part in the making of a wonderful day, one in which he showed his gratitude for this grand country of ours these United States of America.

Have we gone so far in our busy days, in our high speed pace that we can't slow down long enough to get together as a community and at least have a parade on the Fourth of July? Where is our patriotic spirit? I understand the reason we did not have our usual parade and demonstration was lack of co-operation and enthusiasm. How lax can we become? Or am I getting to the age where I am becoming too sentimental?

I know some of the youngsters may read this and saw "aw what's the matter with her, we had a good time." I hope they did, but are we doing our part to instill in their minds the meaning, the value, the purpose and the grandeur of our country? I know there must be others who get a lump in their throats and a tear in their eyes when Old Glory goes down the street. That flag means something, let's not be afraid to show our feeling toward it, and our love for our country.

BLOOD SUCKERS

During the days when "bleeding" was considered a method of curing disease, The World Book Encyclopedia notes that it was common practice for doctors to use leeches, or bloodsuckers, to suck blood from ailing patients.

HOUSE MOVERS

Perhaps you were one of the poor suffering taxpayers who saw your beautiful trees wrecked this week by house moving vandals—certainly that is the only word to describe their operation. This concerns the house moved south on Dunton, west on Grove and back north on Highland July 7 and 8.

It is possible to measure the damage done to trees and parkways only in the thousands of dollars—certainly a poor return for the moving fee received by the Village. For our own part, one 35-foot elm was desecrated and our parkway and flagstone walk torn and ground to bits! How many times was that duplicated in the blocks over which the moving took place?

Who's to blame? Can we blame the house movers—badly as their job was handled? Or can we hold the Village officials responsible who permitted this incredible thing to happen—apparently with no thought to the consequence.

Such a situation as this makes all the talks about "beautiful parks" a mockery.

SEWAGE DISPOSAL

As the local newspaper, you have frequently expressed your purpose and policy to promote the common good.

Septic Sewage Disposal is an item of importance. The proper installation of a system is vital to good health. Every contractor has the moral responsibility to preserve the health. Every citizen has the same responsibility. An example by an unscrupulous contractor is an acreage just south of Arlington Heights.

This contractor almost buried the mess, when he was stopped. If he had not been stopped, we would have had a disease incubator to the hazard of the community. Our experience should be a touchy story, a warning to home owners, rural.

Why not send out for a few good pictures of what a septic sewage disposal system should NOT BE.

P. J. Vollman,

LOST PICTURES

Last Christmas I drove to Wisconsin on leave and somewhere between your city and Milwaukee I lost a collection of pictures taken and painted in the different countries I have visited. I can best describe them by the two large pictures which are photographs of two girls in Japanese dress. They were lost about the twenty-second or twenty-third of December. I hope you might have them. In the event you do, will you please write me soon and inform me of the fact.

BABIES' NAMES

I hope that I am not too late to send in my suggestion for a name:

For a boy I would suggest Earl because that sounds big and majestic, and you cannot shorten it to a silly nickname.

For a girl I would say June. That, too, cannot be shortened so easily. It is very sweet. Most everyone likes the month of June. I am sure everyone will love a little girl with such a name.

Take it from me I am past 50 years and a baby sitter, and I know how some of the tots feel about their names.

UNUSUAL NAMES

An Arlington Heights mother may or may not have given birth to many children, but she can certainly think up names for the coming baby whose mother has asked Paddock Publications to assist in finding the best name on earth for the best baby on earth.

Mother-to-be: Here are names, many of which are sufficiently unusual to satisfy any baby:

Girl: Courtney, Eileen, Candice, Corliss, D-ETTE, Etienne, Camilla, Le-Vida, Theda, Thyra, Allyson, Georgia Carroll, Heather Angel, Bonwyn, Regan, Melba Dawn, Althea, Lenita, Neva, Theda, Reseda, Orpha, Rojean, Amalie, Ruhannah, Arthemise, Rulon, Florentine, Andriette, Joy.

Boy: Sherman Thomas, Sherman, Berwyn, Roderick, Ridgely, Shannon, Varano, Cameron, Scott, Murray, Murray Davis, Du Ray, Dion, Carter, Baynard, Sidonie, Shelby, Stanwell.

PLEASURE ACRES

I have been reading names for the new park. Names of dead people don't appeal to me, nor does Memorial, that is also a contribution to the dead.

The park is for pleasure, all kinds of it. So why not name it Pleasure Acres?

If you think our town should be used, it will be Palatine's Pleasure Acres, but to me just Pleasure Acres sounds very fitting.

JUST AROUND THE CORNER

Dear Jane:

So it's an easy and simple thing to use an electric sanding machine and refinish one's own floors beautifully? Don't you believe it!

It's nightmareish — it plays havoc with your nerves — it makes the entire house dusty — it cranks every stick of furniture, bric-a-brac, pictures, etc., into places where you can't find a thing you want when you want it — it disrupts meal schedules — it's a fiendish and diabolical enterprise and I wouldn't wish such a thing on my worst enemy!

It all began here at Manapisa Farm because Rob (the man who married me) and I talked ourselves into thinking we weren't satisfied with the finish we had on the oak floors. At first we had wanted a dark stain, (and I still think it beautiful), but we have come to think that the lighter stain is more practical, at least, where one lives on a farm. The dust and footprints aren't so noticeable. So my good man decides he will take off the original stain. Whatever he used for this purpose didn't work out as he had anticipated, and as a consequence, the living-room floor was streaked; dark in some places, light in others.

With a sad heart he looked on his work. "Looks like the only solution now is to rent a sanding machine and get right down to the bottom," he said. Little did I know then what we were in for!

Well, Saturday and Sunday of the past week was spent in moving every piece of furniture, every picture, rug, out of the living-room into whatever space we could find, and the work of refinishing the floors begun. With the large sanding machine, one also rents what is known as an "edger." This enables one to get right up to the baseboards, but, of course, my husband insisted on removing the boards first, so as to do a "better job," he said. Number three son, George, operated this smaller machine at first, but as he became proficient, he relieved his father at the larger one. It was decided that Mother would not be compatible with this hazardous kind of machinery, and would only succeed in gouging large pieces out of the flooring, so I merely looked on through the long hours at what seemed like a job that would never be done. Occasionally I used the harmless broom to take up quantities of fine shavings.

It seems that there are three kinds of sandpaper used in this process of refinishing floors. First, a coarse paper, then a medium coarse, lastly, a very fine paper. Although there are bags attached to the machines to catch a lot of the dirt (much as in a vacuum cleaner) still, let me assure you, everything within a radius of sixty feet all ways,

As I look about me this morning (Monday), I must face the fact that the entire first floor will have to be thoroughly cleaned. (And, I'm having a party for a bride-to-be in just five days!) As soon as I complete this letter to you, I must have a session down in the laundry with the curtains from the bedrooms and the kitchen. Fortunately, the living-room drapes were taken down previously, and tucked away in a reasonably clean place before the onslaught! But, until two coats of Minwax filler and stain are applied to the "raw" floor, and thoroughly dried, I can't begin to put things back in place. When I think that I must take every book from the shelves and clean each one, I shudder.

Rob, the optimist that he is, says: "Can't you think, instead, of the pleasant side? Think of how nice everything will look for this party you're giving." Of course, but will I have the strength left to enjoy the party?

My advice to you is, if you have any floors you are considering re-doing, turn the job over to a decorator and let him have the grief. He gets paid for it, and believe me, he earns every cent!

Gee, I wish I were taking life easy in a hotel at Lake Geneva right at this moment!

S'AMUSER

Paddock Publications began printing It Happened Here over 12 years ago when Belle Owen, its author and S'Amuser, lived in the gracious white house of V. I. Brown. She later moved to Chicago.

"Perhaps the editors may be pleased to know that one copy has gone to dear ones in Colorado every week," writes S'Amuser. "I enjoy my connection with the Cook County Herald and appreciate the courtesy and friendliness extended to me. All my best wishes for the continued prosperity of Paddock Publications."

"P. S.: The photo may be old, but I feel that young."

life hit one of those big daily double pay offs.

They all read of them and dream of them but they seldom really see it happen to anyone they know.

Well, we saw it happen to a friend of ours the other day; a fellow whom we have kidded often in this column about his systems and his daily double selections.

Yes, the "once in a life time" really happened out at Arlington Park when that big $2,247.60 double was hung out on the board and the fellow who had been kidded and laughed at by his friends now had the laugh on them all.

The only sad part of it was, he wasn't there to see it happen. If he had been, you'd have been able to hear his rooting for Miss Quinlan (the second horse in the double) clear down to Des Plaines.

More than that, he hadn't heard the results and when a friend called him up and told him to "come and get it," he thought that some of his joking friends were trying to put one pointed governor with Vincennes on the Wabash as the seat of government.

IN 1809 the Territory of Illinois was set off and Ninian Edwards was appointed governor, a post which he held until Illinois became a state in 1818 with Shadrack Bond its first governor and a population of 40,000.

Migration to the west began much earlier from Virginia and its neighbors than from New England and New York. Before the Revolution the hardy pioneers were pouring over the mountains into Kentucky, that "dark and bloody ground." Despite the hardships of the journey and danger from hostile Indians, the tide of new settlers pushed steadily westward to the Mississippi; hence the southern part of the Illinois country was settled much earlier than the northern. When statehood was achieved in 1818, life in Southern Illinois had begun to take on a more or less permanent phase.

Long after the Indians had ceased to be a menace in the south, the northern part of the state was still in their possession.

EARLY English and French adventurers along the shores of Lake Michigan found the Pottawatomies, whose hunting grounds extended at one time all around the head of the lake. They sometimes shared with the Ottawas, Cherokees and the Miami, but the Pottawatomie were the dominant power from the first discovery until the final removal of all the Indians to the west of the River in 1836.

Campus Capers

At Illinois Tech

One hundred and twenty northwest side persons are among the 700 alumni of Illinois Institute of Technology assisting in the 1949 fund drive to help finance the Institute's $15,000,000 campus building program.

Northwest side alumni assisting with the drive included: Harry M. Essington, 114 S. Elmhurst avenue, Mt. Prospect; Robert A. Peterson, 406 N. Wille, Mt. Prospect.

In Japan

Private Daniel F. Raupp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albinus C. Raupp, has recently been stationed with the 99th Field Artillery Battalion at Camp Bender Ota, Japan. At present he is a cannoner in the fifth gun section of "A" Battery.

Recruit Raupp entered the Army January 21, 1949 and received his basic training at Camp Breckinridge, Kentucky. After completing basic training he was transferred to Camp Stoneman, California for assignment in the Far East Command. Private Raupp arrived in Japan on the 13th of May 1949.

Before entering the Army Private Raupp was engaged in farming.

At Illinois

Martha Zepp, 216 S. Louis st., Mt. Prospect, has been among the 86 high school students attending the program for the Youth Orchestra of Greater Chicago at the University of Illinois June 26 to July 9. She plays the oboe.

The Youth Orchestra of Greater Chicago is the first of several groups of high school students to spend two weeks on the U. of I. campus this summer in the program for Summer Youth Groups arranged by the U. of I. Division of University Extension and conducted by Paul Painter of the University faculty.

At John Marshall

Raymond W. Klein, Rohlwing road, Palatine, has just been awarded the degree of Bachelor of Laws from the John Marshall Law School, 315 South Plymouth Court, Chicago, as a climax to a three-year course of study in the school's evening section.

Mr. Klein, who was a former student at the Central Y.M.C.A. college, served with the U. S. Marine Corps Reserve during the war. He finished with the largest class the school has graduated since the war.

Degrees were given at the hands of Noble W. Lee, dean of the school. Speaker was Attorney Harold A. Smith, newly elected president of the Chicago Bar Association. Other speakers included A. E. Wilson, assistant dean of the school who is celebrating his 50th year on the school's faculty; and Park Livingston, president of the school's board of trustees.

Animal Understanding

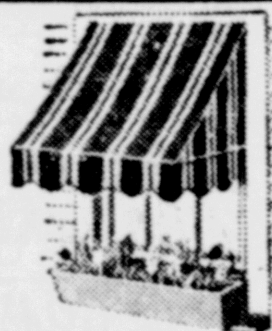

Many animals do understand words, and, to a degree, in the same way man does—through symbolism, according to Dr. Gustav Eckstein, associate professor of physiology in the college of medicine, University of Cincinnati, and noted author and expert on animal psychology.

Little drops of water...

Unfortunately, Esther Williams is unable to turn back the clock and wait for Catherine Ruth Rohlwing, 14 months, (left) to grow older, or we don't doubt but what Catherine Ruth might give our swimming songbird some strong competition.

The singing angle is still indefinite, but Catherine Ruth discovered swimming was a wonderful sport last Sunday at Lake Wauconda and took it right in her stride... splashing like mad.

Only child of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rohlwing, 108 S. Haddon, Arlington Heights, Catherine has blue eyes and wears her hair in "bangs" now.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rohlwing, Rohlwing road, Palatine, are paternal grandparents and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Heuer, Rand road, maternal grandparents of the little lady.

Little grains of sand...

A chatterbox, capable of carrying on a complete conversation, Dickie Steuber, 29 months, (center) knows all nursery rhymes and has memorized most of them.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Steuber, 1 S. George st., Mt. Prospect, Dickie is patiently waiting for a younger brother, Davey, 6 months, to grow enough to play in his sandbox with him. Mrs. Elsie Landenberger, Dickie's grandmother, lives with the Steuber family. Dickie's pet name for grandma is "Mi-mi."

Make this beautiful land

The K. M. Davies family, 806 S. Elmhurst, Mt. Prospect, rarely want for a baby sitter to watch Laurel Ann, 2½, (right). Only child of an only child, Laurel Ann Davies is the apple of her grandparents' eye. When Mr. Davies returned

Crack American Legion musical organizations will have their own "Hit Parade" during the 31st annual convention of the Illinois American Legion in Chicago, Aug. 5-8.

Competing for $2,000 in cash prizes and awards will be the top Legion and Legion-sponsored bands and drum and bugle corps from all sections of the state.

The contests will be held from 1-6 p. m. in Lane Tech Stadium, Western ave. and Addison st., Saturday, Aug. 6. Running from 9 a. m. to noon on the same field will be individual bugling and drum, brass quartet, snare drum and percussion and drum major and majorette contests. Winners will receive medals.

Vying for an added $2,325 in cash prizes, the bands and drum and bugle corps, together with clown and novelty groups, will strut their stuff during the Legion's giant parade down Michigan ave., the following afternoon.

from service, the Davies family and Laurel's grandparents, the Ben Ivers, purchased two lots and built houses next door to each other.

"So for the past two years, Laurel has had a 'sitter' convenient at all times. But we love it," Laurel's grandmother stated.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben C. Ivers, 804 Elmhurst, Mt. Prospect, are maternal grandparents.

MON. — Mr. Belvedere Goes To College

Dr. Ward's Notebook Patients and doctors served by clinics

Red Wing, Minnesota. — Your correspondent, having managed to break away from the daily routine for a while, has had an opportunity to mix a bit of business with a bit of pleasure, while rolling across southern Minnesota. Ever since Papa Mayo and his gifted sons set up what was to become the prototype of group medical practice the world over, small clinics have sprung up throughout Minnesota and Wisconsin. In the brief course of a day we have seen well-known Gundersen Clinic in La Crosse, the Winona Clinic of Dr. Heise and his five sons, which was written up in Time recently, and the booming Interstate Clinic here in Red Wing.

We managed to catch Dr. Ray Hedman in emergency surgery and a house call, long enough to have a personal tour through one of the most beautifully designed and completely equipped medical buildings in the country. Seven doctors, each specializing in one of the major branches of medicine serve Red Wing and its surrounding farms. This means that every patient regardless of the severity or complexity of his illness, receives the most advanced treatment by physicians skilled in that field without traveling 45 miles to Rochester or 60 to Minneapolis.

The people of Red Wing have been quick to appreciate the contribution Interstate Clinic makes to their community. This plan, in addition to providing special services at moderate cost, allows the physicians to attend medical meetings and go on vacations without interrupting their patient's care. And the group is small enough so that a close doctor-patient relationship—the essence of American medicine—is never lost.

IT SEEMS TO ME that a small well organized clinic is one of our best answers to the threat of socialized medicine. A recent study revealed that the majority of such groups are in towns under 10,000. Thus they serve areas which in the past have never had adequate medical care. In addition, a clinic can set fees according to patients' ability to pay, provide insurance protection through plans like Blue Shield, and contribute substantially to charity medical care.

Of course, evolution of the clinic idea is slow. It takes time, money, and much hard work to build an organization like the Interstate Clinic. But as patients and doctors alike come to realize the tremendous advantages of this type of medical group, we cows is an easy way to increase your milk checks during these hot summer months.

C. S. Rhode, Illinois College of Agriculture dairyman, says milk production drops off about 30 per cent from May to early fall. One reason is lack of shade in pastures. He says dairymen are lucky if they have a pasture with plenty of shade for daytime grazing.

If you don't have trees of natural shade, you can put up a pole and sheet-metal shelter. It's easy to build, costs very little, and lasts a long time. It's merely four cross-roped poles stuck into the ground, with a sloping sheet-metal roof. It's open on all four sides.

You can get plans for the pole and sheet-metal shelter from the College of Agriculture in Urbana. Just ask for plan number 249. Cows like to stay cool in summer too.

Grain storage bin made of new 'quick' materials

If you face a critical grain storage problem on your farm this summer and fall, here may be one answer:

Agricultural engineers at the Illinois College of Agriculture have designed and tested a new type of grain storage bin which you can build easily and cheaply on your farm.

Plans for the bin are available at the Department of Agricultural Engineering at Urbana. There is a charge of 15 cents for the blueprint and instruction sheet.

Deane G. Carter, professor of farm structures, and his associates designed the bin from twelve 4x8 foot sheets of the new laminated wood and paper material. The result is a round bin 14 feet in diameter and 8 feet high with a capacity of 1,000 bushels.

IT CAN BE constructed and set up on your farm by two men in one day. Cost of materials is less than 10 cents a bushel, not counting the floor.

The new laminate material has a wood veneer core, glued and covered with a tough asphalt-resin paper. The sheets are only one-seventh of an inch thick and are light enough to be easily handled by one man.

When you build the bin, assemble three sheets of the building material at one time. Overlay the sheets 4 inches along the 8-foot edge and glue with a special urea-formaldehyde glue.

Place a strip of 1x4 inch board on each side of the glued joint and nail with 1 1/4 inch nails, 3 inches apart. Join these built-up sections of three sheets each, in pairs, making two half-circle walls. Use a 2x4 inch plank strip in place of one of the 1x4 inch strips when you join the sections.

ERECT the two half-walls and glue and nail them to form the circle wall. Nail two 2x4 inch crosspieces across the top of the bin for additional support.

Professor Carter says that the limited tests run on the bin so far indicate that it will stand the weight and pressure of the stored grain. In the test the bin was filled with 1,115 bushels of shelled corn. That is 62,440 pounds—10 per cent above the rated capacity of the bin.

That's about the same load that would result from storage of soybeans, rye, barley or grain sorghum. The bin was left under test for 112 hours. During this time the framework was jarred severely to reveal possible weaknesses. There was no damage, and the glued joints remained sound.

Where the bin is to be used outside, you should plan for a wood or concrete slab floor. A temporary cover can be made from reinforced building paper or a tarpaulin, but the plan shows how to build a permanent roof cover, which is more desirable. Professor Carter says that many farmers might be able to erect the circular bin in a crib driveway or machine shed where no other floor or cover would be needed.

State black and white cattle show

The annual Illinois Holstein Black and White Show will be held on Saturday, July 16 at Mooseheart, Ill. This is the climactic event of the district shows now being held in every organized Holstein area in the Northern half of the state.

A full day's program starting at 9:30 a. m. will include the judging of 21 classes of cattle, a 4-H boys and girls showmanship contest, a noon program of entertainment, and a pot-luck group lunch. All of the class winners will be presented with large rotating trophies donated by the many local breeders and commercial concerns of the Fox River Valley area.

Record cows

Several registered Holstein-Friesian cows in the herd of Martin Loeber, Palatine, have tests under Herd Improvement completed official production Registry rules.

Testing was supervised by the University of Illinois in cooperation with the Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

Highest producer among these was Queen Man-O-War Ollie Bernice with 515 pounds of butterfat and 14,188 pounds of milk made in 365 days on 2 milkings daily and at the age of 6 years.

Another high producer was Mutual Pet Moonlit Dale Inka May with 510 pounds of butterfat and 14,449 pounds of milk made in 365 days on 2 milkings daily and at the age of 4 years 4 months.

LAW on the FARM

Stream Pollution

Although the law has long recognized the fact that stream bank owners have a right to prevent any pollution of a stream which will make it unfit for their use, the rules of law have not always been clear-cut or easy to apply. Some of the uncertainty has been dispelled in Illinois by several statutes dealing with the pollution of water. These may be summarized as follows:

1. The criminal code provides: That "whoever willfully and maliciously defiles, corrupts, or makes impure any spring, or other source of water, or reservoir... shall be fined not exceeding $1,000 or confined in the county jail not exceeding one year."

That it is a public nuisance to throw dead animals or other offensive matter in any water course, lake, pond, spring, well or common sewer.

That it is a public nuisance to corrupt or render unwholesome or impure the water of any spring, river, stream, pond or lake, to the injury or prejudice of others.

That it is a public nuisance to permit any salt water, oil, gas or other wastes from any well drilled for oil, gas, or exploratory purposes to escape to the surface or into any underground fresh water supply.

That anyone who willfully poisons any well, spring or reservoir of water with intent to cause the death of any person shall be imprisoned from one to twenty years.

2. It is by law the duty of the State Department of Public Works and Buildings to see that all the streams and lakes of the State of Illinois... wherein the State of Illinois or any of

State VFW confab at Springfield

Illinois members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars open their 30th annual convention at Springfield Friday, July 15.

At the same time, the Ladies Auxiliary of the overseas veterans organization will hold its yearly meeting in the state capitol city.

Among important problems affecting the welfare of veterans which VFW officials said would come before the convention are the protection of voting rights of hospitalized veterans, adjusted service compensation for all World War II veterans, creation of a uniform Poppy Day for all veterans' organizations in Illinois, establishment of universal military training, and limiting of veterans benefits to those who actually served in the armed forces.

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

by LELAND ELLIS TRUXELI

The time comes in many married couple's life when the morning good-bye kiss ceases to be a pleasure, and is accepted as an unwilling duty or is discarded forever. It is no longer a pledge of loyalty and affection.

Thousands of marriages are on the way to dissolution this very instant because love has grown cold. The moment when glamor and romance go out of marriage, leaving a void which should have been gradually filled by a growth of mutual interest and understanding is a dangerous one. Even though most everyone knows that marriage is more than the exercise of the basic emotions of love, far too few husbands and wives accept the fact that it means sacrifice, forgiveness and compromise. That it means going all of the way in effort and devotion when the going is rough through sickness, misfortune or human errors.

Perfection in a mate, unfortunately, is something that many a bride and groom expects as a birthright. They fail to see the lack of it in themselves, or seeing it, insist that their own selfishness, unkindness, or failure to accept responsibility be tolerated. Sometimes it is pride, too often self righteousness, ignorance or pure callousness to the feelings of others that destroys love.

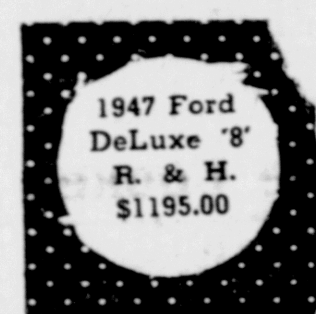

The will to live and let live, good sportsmanship in marriage, is one of the contributions which every mate may throw into the marriage pot to sweeten it. Community of interests and an appreciation of one another's hobbies, interests, and attitudes binds two people closer together. Eagerness to forgive and forget, sharing grief and joy, honestly giving without measure to the marriage effort means, with a mate that cooperates, that the light shows green for a happy married life.

In my years of service as a mail man, I have seen many families broken because of failure to observe these well known rules. I have seen the hardships placed on children, the worry and bitterness of bickering partners headed for the divorce courts. It is not a pretty thing to see.

But marriage means happiness to the couples who remember and practice the little kindnesses and unselfish devotions, little tokens of affection that means so much to a partner, and requires only self control and understanding.

Lesson in English

by W. L. GORDON

Words Often Misused

Do not say, "Every one of you should watch your money." Say, "Every one of you should watch his money."

Per cent is both singular and plural. "Ten per cent was the profit." "Ten per cent of the boys are employed."

Do not say, "It was a man by the name of Wilson." "A man named Wilson" is preferable, and simpler, too.

Do not say, "All men are better than he." Say, "All other men are better than he."

Do not say, "We brought it to a final completion." Final is tautological, as completion means final, or the fulfillment.

Do not say, "I saw him around the Fourth of July." Say, "I saw him about the Fourth of July."

Words Often Mispronounced
Arctic. Pronounce ark-tik, not ar-tik.

Presentation. Pronounce first syllable prez, and not preez.

Homicide. Pronounce the o as in on. Not as in home.

Vacuum. Pronounce vak-u-um, three syllables, and not vak-yum.

Neptune. Pronounce the u as in cube, not as toon.

Forbade. Pronounce second syllable as though spelled bad, accent second syllable.

Words Often Misspelled
Pianos; os. Heroes; oes. Liquify, observe the e, and not liquify. Nineteen; nine. Ninth; no e. Jam (a fruit preserve). Jamb (part of a doorway). Raspberry; observe the p, though pronounced raspberry. Paraffin; two f's.

Word Study
"Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day. Words for this lesson:

BILINGUAL; recorded or expressed in two languages; speaking two languages. (Pronounce bi-ling-gwal, first i as in bite, accent second syllable). "It is a bilingual dictionary." "It is a bilingual country."

INDEMNIFY; to secure against loss or damage. "The merchant was indemnified against any damage by flood waters."

ABASH; to destroy the self-possession of; to confuse; disconcert. "There were at least three persons in the room whom nothing could abash."

PREDISPOSE; to give a tendency to. "Debility predisposes the body to disease."

ITINERARY (noun); a route, record of a journey. "The itinerary of the lecturer covered twelve states."

Spank my child?Dr. Baruch answers

How can I discipline my child and still keep his love? How can I train him so he will grow up unspoiled, respecting me? Shall I spank him or reason with him?

If these questions are bothering you, Dr. Dorothy Walter Baruch's book written for parents and teachers, New Ways in Discipline will give you a consistent, thought-provoking system to follow. Dr. Baruch, psychologist and psychotherapist, is a leading consultant in child guidance problems. Out of her wide experience, she has developed a rewarding method of handling children.

She points out that most discipline fails to work because a child's "badness" has two parts and we deal almost exclusively with only one of them.

She says, "A child acts naughtily. That's one part of the problem. A child feels naughty. That's the other part. He does mean things because he has mean feelings inside him. His feelings are the cause; his actions are the result."

This distinction is the basis for her work. In conventional discipline we have ignored the child's feelings and concentrated on his actions. We say "Be nice to little sister" and fail to understand the feelings that make the child mean.

So first it is necessary to understand what the child is feeling. The parent must have time alone with the child to listen and to accept all he has to say. The parent must mirror in words what the child thinks, showing him that he does understand.

This means that the child must be allowed to say anything at all. He must be allowed to call his parents names, to say that he doesn't want to go to bed, and that he hates little sister. The feelings must not be curbed, but allowed expression so they will not fill the little mind with unexpressed longings and hates. When they are released, then positive warm feelings will take their place.

It is the actions which must be curbed. Mother says, "You want to hit little sister. I cannot let you hit her. But you may hit the pillow and pretend it is little sister." So the child learns that it is human to have feelings of hate, but that he must channel them so they will do no harm. If Mother had said, "Shame on you. You are a naughty boy to say that. Of course you love your little sister. Show her you love her," the child would have bottled up his resentment inside, ready for a future explosion.

Dr. Baruch describes other ways to channel feelings. Letting the child talk is an important one—allowing him to express his feelings directly to the parent, or to make up stories, poems, and songs in which his resentments are verbalized and accepted. Often children act out their feelings; at other times with paints, crayons, chalk and clay, they release them in drawing and modeling.

Dr. Baruch is convincing in showing how the child's actions can be painlessly curbed, leaving his feelings free. Instead of being broken, he will develop to his full potentialities with no bottled-up feeling to thwart his growth toward mental maturity.

More than 7,500 enrolled in N. U. summer sessions

More than 7,500 persons are enrolled for summer study at Northwestern University, A. C. Van Dusen, director of the Summer Sessions reported. The figure represents an overall decrease of approximately 10 per cent under the 1948 summer registration, although a 14 per cent decrease had been expected because of the drop in veteran enrollment.

"One of the significant features of this Summer Sessions registration is the stability of the Graduate School enrollment," said Prof. Van Dusen. "There are 1,745 registered for graduate study this year, as compared with 1,786 last year. Summer Sessions seem to be returning to the pre-war type of registration, with fewer students engaged in accelerated programs at the undergraduate level, and a greater number studying for advanced degrees."

'Horror' show at Arlington theatre

Bela Lugosi starring in "Dracula" will be shown at the Arlington theater next Wednesday, one day only. On the same program will be the original "Frankenstein" starring Boris Karloff.

Anklin' Around with Ainslie

Wonder oh I wonder what is cooking overtown? This is the second week of our enforced vacation, no kids, no dog, just rest — me I'm tired on all sides from resting.

Now owe pop some $750.00 from gin rummy — the house is a bit on the dusty side — and we've read about every magazine on the market. Learning several things though.

2—that the Vos and Ridge Groceries have been very accommodating about delivering foodstuffs.

3—that dream I had at one time about vacation minus the children was certainly crazy, gotten so desperate I get up to slam the screen door just to make sure I'm not solidifying or something.

4—a liver is a darn nuisance, and yellow as a skin color is not attractive to either one of us. 5—by my listening to "Against the Storm" in the mornings pop gets the Cubs' baseball game all afternoon, something seems to tell me I'm getting cheated.

Say, did discover before I took to me bed that my friend, the cop, is now patrolling the parking lots. Strange how the police car makes everyone park straight and just so. Also have had more time for my favorite hobby of reading want ads. The Herald, by the way, has some of the best. If you're wanting anything from donkeys to zithers, keep your eye on these ads. A good place to mention that extra furniture you want to get rid of too.

Hear by the telephone that the stores are a popping with mid-summer sales. Right now is positively the time for picking up some of the latest cotton dresses at the lowest bargain prices. And there is still plenty of time to get several months' wear from those mouth watering pastels. And shoes too, all sorts of gay play types and whites are now offered at really low prices.

Well time for pills. Got quite an assortment from the local drug store. Two vitamin—a dark pill—and a spoon of smooth tasting syrup, really my liver doesn't deserve it all. Well so long, trust I'll be out and about hunting for bargains next week — Okay Doc I'll get back to bed.

Legislature passes 29 bills but drop 37 others

The Illinois state legislature, the 66th general assembly, has adjourned after acting on 66 bills at the last session, approving 29 and failing to pass 37.

Bills approved are:

A 1950 "gateway" vote on an easier method of amending the constitution.

A record high $100,000,000 school aid program.

A $15 increase to $65 a month in blind and old age pension ceilings.

A state reformatory for youthful felons.

A five day week for banks, if they want it.

A 10 per cent pay increase for state employees.

Fixing of cigaret prices.

Stronger enforcement of mine safety laws.

Tightening of fire protection laws.

A separate board of trustees for Southern Illinois university.

A court curb on quick divorces, if the Supreme court wants to issue it.

Increasing the tax on parimutuel betting on harness racing from three to five per cent.

Horse races at night.

A 72 instead of 84 hour maximum work week for downstate firemen.

Heavier fines for overweight trucks.

Boosting maximum jobless pay benefits from $20 to $25 a week.

A 15 per cent increase in workmen's compensation and occupational diseases benefits.

A hospital authority law, replacing the court-nullified 1947 act.

Higher pay for future governors and other elected and appointed officials.

A new system of court relief for prisoners contending their constitutional rights were violated.

Higher salaries and longer terms (5 instead of 2 years) for state commerce commissioners.

Creation of property tax assessment supervisors in 100 downstate counties.

A "little Hoover" commission to study revamping of state government.

Rewriting of public assistance laws.

A $15,000 instead of no limit on dram shop law damage suits.

Dollar instead of 50 cent driver license fees.

A $3,278,000 state aid program for local airports.

A $6,000,000 program for state aid to tuberculosis victims.

Among the more important bills rejected were:

Calling a constitutional convention.

Providing for a fair employment practices commission.

Increasing the 3 cent gasoline tax to 5 cents.

Higher passenger car and truck licenses.

Bring a cool lake breeze into your bedroom ...with a night cooling fan!

How a night cooling fan works:

It pulls out stored-up heated air, while cool, night air is drawn in through opened windows. The gently moving, cool air absorbs heat and evaporates perspiration... you feel cooler immediately!

You bring a lake shore breeze right into your apartment... when you have a night cooling window fan. A window fan draws in cool air from outdoors—and sends it through your rooms to lower the temperature and help you feel cooler. As the moving air passes over your skin, moisture is evaporated quickly... and you feel comfortably cool. Best of all, you can sleep in comfort. There's a night cooling fan for your home... find out about it today!

A type for every apartment or house!

For the apartment, an easily-installed window fan or a portable model to be set up in front of the window is ideal. The permanently installed attic type is recommended for home owners.
